HC–Homecoming / FW–Family Weekend / AB - Alamo Bowl

Travis Hunter

In a span of six days, Travis Hunter took home seven major college awards, culminating college football's most-coveted award the Heisman Trophy. He also took home the Lott IMPACT Award (defense), the Paul Hornung Award (versatility), AP Player of the Year, the Bednarik Award (defense), the Biletnikoff Award (receiver), and the Walter Camp Player of the Year. He added the Sporting News National Player of the Year on Dec. 19. His eight major awards is the most by a non-QB in college football history and tied with Joe Burrow and Marcus Mariota for the most in a single season. Hunter was named on 93.32% of all ballots, which is the fourth highest in the history of the Heisman voting.

Shedeur Sanders

Shedeur Sanders finished the regular season completing 338-of-454 passes, 74.4%, for 3,936 yards, 35 TDs, 8 INT, and QBR 169.2. A few of the records he has broken this season:

- He set the new CU record for passing yards, having already held the record for yards in a regular season, surpassing Koy Detmer's record of 3,527 set in 1996.
- He set a new CU record for completions in a season, surpassing Sefo Liufau's total of 325 in 2014.
- He extended his CU record for passing touchdowns to 35 and touchdowns responsible for 39.
- His completion percentage of 74.4 is on pace to break his own record of 69.3 set last season.
- His QB rating of 169.2 is on pace to break his own school record of 152.7 set last season.

Buff Bits

Who, What, When, Where

- Colorado Buffaloes vs. BYU Cougars
- Bowl Season, 2024 College Football Season
- December 28, 2024, 5:30 p.m. MST
- Alamodome, San Antonio, Texas

Five Things To Know

1. Travis Hunter won the 90th Heisman Trophy and the second in CU history. Rashaan Salaam in won the first Heisman Trophy in Colorado history in 1994.
2. Colorado is looking for its first Bowl win since the 2004 Houston Bowl.
3. Hunter was the first player in the 135-years to be named a First-Team All-American by the Walter Camp on both offense and defense. He is CU's seventh Unanimous All-American.
4. Hunter, Shedeur Sanders, and BJ Green won a Big 12 Player of the Year award, this tied the school record for most in a season (1990).
5. Among all the other firsts, Hunter was the first player ever to win both the Biletnikoff Award, given to the top receiver regardless of position, and the Bednarik Award, given to the top defensive player.

The Prime Effect

- When Coach Prime was hired, CU had 62,953 followers on CU football Instagram and 98,560 on CU football Twitter/X. Today, the Buffs are up to 1,041,411 followers on Instagram and 276,080 on Twitter/X.
- Enrollment at CU Boulder is at a record high, with 38,428 enrolled for the fall. CU also set a record for student retention, with 90% of students who started here last fall returning to CU this year. CU also had a record number of applications from students who identify as Black or African American, with enrollment up 7.9% from last year.
- Last semester he guest lectured three times for a class called "Prime Time: Public Performance and Leadership" that was offered by our College of Media Communication and Information(students referred to him as "Professor Prime"). He was the keynote speaker at last spring's Conference on World Affairs and he's been a guest lecturer at the Leeds School of Business and the Law School
- CU's football team posted its best term GPA on record with a 2.932 last spring semester. It was the first time the team recorded over a 2.9 and the third time ever it scored over a 2.8 GPA. Travis Hunter was named a first-team 2023 Academic All-American, becoming just the second player in program history to earn first-team All-America and first-team Academic All-America honors. (Hunter has a 3.7 GPA).

Deion "Coach Prime" Sanders

Known as "Prime Time" during his Hall of Fame playing career, Deion Sanders and has since transitioned into "Coach Prime," and was named the 28th full-time head football coach at the University of Colorado, athletic director Rick George announced Saturday, Dec. 3, 2022.

Coach Prime put the Buffs back on the map, as CU was the center of the college football world through September in his first season. Despite finishing 4-8, Colorado was the most watched team in the nation until the final week of the regular season and finished sixth despite not making the postseason. CU was on network television a record five times and had eight games on either network TV or the flagship ESPN.

In two recruiting cycles, he has recruiting three five-star prospect to the Buffs, matching the total from the previous 21 seasons combined. CU's first five games of 2023 ended up being in five of the top 25 most watched games in college football through the bowl season and playoffs, and five of the top 13 rated games in CU history.

Coach Prime joined the Buffs from Jackson State University, where in three seasons the Tigers compiled a 27-6 record and won back-to-back Southwestern Athletic Conference championships and Celebration Bowl appearances competing on the FCS level; that mark included a 12-1 record this season. This year, Jackson State defeated Southern, 43-24, in the SWAC title game but fell in overtime to N.C. Central, 41-34, in the Celebration Bowl.

At Jackson State, Sanders achieved tremendous success on and off the field as a fierce advocate for additional exposure and a level playing field for all Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs). Sanders brought national attention to HBCUs, pushing for opportunities to highlight its talent and the culture. In March 2022, Sanders held a Pro Day featuring athletes from four other schools in the state of Mississippi to provide a platform in front of 22 NFL teams and the Canadian Football League. In April 2022, Jackson State became the first HBCU to have its spring football game televised live nationally on ESPNU.

Sanders was named the 21st head coach in Jackson State history on Sept. 21, 2020, but had to wait to coach his first game until COVID-19 restrictions were lifted and several FCS schools opted to play a delayed schedule in the spring. Exactly six months to the day later (Feb. 21, 2021), he led the Tigers to a 53-0 win over Edward Waters (Fla.) to begin the "Coach Prime Era." It was considered the touch point of the elevation of JSU football and the University into becoming one of the most impactful and recognizable brands nationwide.

JSU was 4-3 in the pandemic-delayed 2020 season before rolling to an 11-2 record in 2021, winning the SWAC title with a 27-10 win over Prairie View A&M in the title game. The Tigers lost to South Carolina State in the Celebration Bowl; otherwise their only other losses over his last 26 games was a 12-7 setback at FBS Louisiana-Monroe in Sept. '21 and this year's bowl.

Seven of his players on the 2021 JSU roster earned a professional opportunity in the NFL, CFL or USFL, including James Houston IV, who was drafted in the sixth round by the Detroit Lions. He also signed cornerback Travis Hunter, considered the top high school prospect in the nation, to an NLI in December 2021, the highest ranked prospect to ever sign with an HBCU or an FCS program.

Sanders was voted the SWAC's Coach of the Year for a second straight season; 12 of his players earned some level of All-SWAC honors. For the 2021 campaign, he also garnered honors for the FCS Eddie Robinson National Coach of the Year, BOXTOTOW National Coach of the Year and Black College Hall of Fame Coach of the Year.

Prior to joining the collegiate coaching ranks at Jackson State, Sanders had been involved in coaching for over a decade. He was the offensive coordinator at Trinity Christian School (Cedar Hill, Texas), leading the Tigers to three straight Texas Association of Private and Parochial Schools (TAPPS) titles and a 42-3 record.

A two-time unanimous first-team All-American at Florida State, he won the third annual Jim Thorpe Award in 1988, presented to the nation's top defensive back. That same year, he finished eighth in the voting for the Heisman Trophy.

He finished his Seminole football career with 14 interceptions, three returned for touchdowns; those are still tied for third in the FSU record book. He owns the longest interception return in school history when he raced 100 yards for a TD against Tulsa as a freshman. Sanders also racked up a still-school record 1,429 punt return yards with three more scores. Playing for the late Hall of Fame coach Bobby Bowden, FSU was 36-9-1 in his four seasons as a Seminole, finishing as the nation's No. 2 team as a junior in 1987 and No. 3 his senior season in 1988.

He also played one season of baseball for FSU (as a sophomore in 1987, batting .267 with three home runs, 21 runs batted in and 27 stolen bases) and ran sprints and relays in track (he was the 1988 Metro Conference outdoor champion in the 100- and 200-meter dashes). He was inducted into Florida State's Athletic Hall of Fame in 1994 and into the College Football Hall of Fame in its 2011 class.

Sanders is the only athlete ever to play in both a Super Bowl (twice) and the World Series.

He appeared in 188 regular season games (157 starts) in the National Football League with five teams: Atlanta (1989-93; the Falcons selected him as the fifth overall pick in the first round in the '89 Draft), San Francisco (1994), Dallas (1995-99), Washington (2000) and Baltimore (2004-05). He was the NFL Defensive Player of the Year for 1994, was named to its 1990s All-Decade Team and to the NFL's All-Time Team in 2020, the latter as part of the league's 100th season celebration.

"Prime Time" made 53 interceptions over the course of his career, with 512 tackles, 19 forced fumbles and 13 recoveries. He amassed 7,838 all-purpose yards, primarily through returns (2,199 punt, 3,523 kickoff). He also caught 60 passes for 784 yards and three touchdowns as in 1996, he became just one of two, two-way starters in the NFL since the platoon days of the 1950s. He set an NFL record with 19 career touchdowns on returns, nine coming via interception returns with six on punts, three on kickoffs and one fumble run back.

In Major League Baseball, he was drafted out of high school in the sixth round of the 1985 draft by the Kansas City Royals and then selected in the '88 draft by the New York Yankees.

Sanders played a total of 11 seasons in professional baseball, nine in the major leagues with the New York Yankees (1989-90), Atlanta (1991-94), Cincinnati (1994-95, 1997, 2001) and San Francisco (1995). In 641 major league games, he owned a career batting average of .263 with 39 home runs, 168 runs batted in and 186 stolen bases.

COACHING STAFF

Prime Staff

The staff that Coach Prime put together for the 2024 season is nothing short of astounding. A total of 16 coaches and staff members have previous experience in the NFL whether it's playing, coaching or in administration or media covering the league.

That staff, which includes Coach Prime's 31 years of experience, has a total of 1,654 games under their belts with 932 of those games coming as a player and 722 as a coach. The staff combines for 159 seasons of NFL experience, including 78 playing and 71 as a coach, administrator or media. With Coach Prime and Warren Sapp, the staff has two gold jackets and a combined 35 playoff appearances.

There are 12 former NFL players on staff and of those 932 games, 894 are regular season games and include 580 starts. The dozen combined for 21 playoff appearances, 38 playoff games played and 30 games started and have four Super Bowl rings. The staff has combined for 68 interceptions, 1,775 tackles, 2,374 punt return yards, 4,843 kick return yards, 1,401 receiving yards and 30 total touchdowns.

On top of two gold jackets, they have a combined 15 pro bowl appearances, 10 first-team All-Pro honors, two defensive player of the year honors. Seven were drafted including three in the first round and five within the top three rounds.

The four former NFL coaches combined for 42 seasons and 722 games, including five seasons as an NFL head coach and nine as an offensive or defensive coordinator.

1—Freedom Bowl

Notes: Colorado Stadium renamed Folsom Field in 1944; BYU's Cougar Stadium is currently named LaVell Edwards Stadium and was renamed from Cougar Stadium and built in 1964, replacing a stadium of the same name.

BY THE NUMBERS

1 — The number of games in series history where neither team did not reach double-digit scoring (1938; 8-0 Colorado).

4 — Number of times Colorado has kept BYU out of the scoring column.

6 — Longest winning streak by either team in series history (Colorado, 1923-1940).

8 — The number of wins the Buffs have over BYU while holding them to 7 points or less (every win in series history).

48 — Largest margin of victory for either team in the series (Colorado, 48-0)

155 — Highest number of rushing yards by a CU player against BYU, set by Kayo Lam 90 years ago in 1934, leading to an 48-6 win by Colorado.

271 — Most passing yards thrown by a Colorado QB in the series history, set by Randy Essington in 1981.

4,780 — The difference of feet in elevation between Boulder (5,430) and San Antonio (650).

Colorado leads the series by an 8-3-1 count against BYU, heading into the Alamo Bowl against their Big 12 conference opponent. These two ironically last lined up from one another all the way back in 1988, when they played in the Freedom Bowl in Anaheim, California.

- The Buffs and Cougars will play each other in San Antonio for the Alamo Bowl and it will be the first time the Buffaloes will have played a conference opponent in the program's bowl game history.
- In the 1988 Freedom Bowl, Colorado lost to Brigham Young, 20-17; Before they both joined the Big 12, they were formerly in two other conferences together. The Buffs and Cougars were members of the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference from 1922-37, and then the Mountain States Conference from 1938-47.
- Colorado was a dominant force against the Cougars early in the series history, winning the first six games, including four in Boulder, before the 1941 matchup in Provo in which the Cougars were able to snap their losing streak with a 13-13 tie. Since then, BYU has won three of the last five games.

DID YOU KNOW? — During the Buffaloes six-game winning streak from 1923-1940 over the Cougars, Colorado outscored BYU 148-14 in that span, including three games in which the BYU offense was shut out.

A CLOSER LOOK

The Buffs and Cougars series history dates all the way back to their first matchup in 1923, over a century ago. A look back on the year 1923...

- The Hollywood Sign was inaugurated in California (initially reading Hollywoodland).
- The first game at Yankee Stadium, "The House That Ruth Built," was played in New York City in April.
- Roy and Walt Disney founded The Walt Disney Company.
- The Coca-Cola '6 pack' was introduced. The famed curved bottle was made beginning in 1916. That specific curve is copyrighted, so no one else can use it. The Coca-Cola logo is written in the Spenserian font.
- The Sacramento Kings are the oldest team in the NBA. The franchise was formed in 1923 as the Rochester Seagrams, a semi-professional team from Rochester, New York.

1938 COTTON BOWL

Jan. 1, 1938 at Dallas, Texas

Rice 28
Colorado 14

In Colorado's first bowl appearance ever, the Buffaloes fell short to Rice 28-14, in the second annual Cotton Bowl. Other than the Rose Bowl, which began in 1902, bowls were relatively new in college football, as the Orange and Sugar came on the scene in 1935 and then the Cotton in 1937, with those four games considered the cream of the crop for the next 50 years.

The Buffs, champions of the Rocky Mountain Conference with an 8-0 overall record, were heavy underdogs ("4 to 1" according to newspaper articles at the time) to the Southwest Conference champion Owls, who entered the game with a 5-3-2 mark, but 5-1-1 down the stretch of the season.

It was a one-man show for both teams, as All-Americans Byron "Whizzer" White (Colorado) and Ernie Lain (Rice) dominated for their respective squads. White was involved in both Colorado scores and Lain in all four Owl touchdowns.

CU sprinted to a 14-0 advantage in the first quarter, when White threw an eight-yard touchdown pass to Joe Antonio for the first TD, and then returned an interception 47 yards for a score five minutes later. Rice battled back and scored 21 second-quarter points to take a 21-14 lead at the half. Lain threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score.

The Owls, also called the "Feathered Flock" at the time, added the game's final score in the middle of the third quarter when Frank Steen caught an 11-yard pass from Lain. One of the major differences in the game came down to offensive style, as the passing game was much further along in the southwest and it showed in the statistics, as Rice had 158 yards passing as compared to just eight for Colorado.

Still, accounts at the time in the newspapers in both Colorado and Texas praised the CU effort, and Buff coach Bunnie Oakes blamed the outcome on CU's quick start. He told the team and reporters that things might have turned out differently had CU not gone up 14-0 and then relaxed, figuring it was easy to score. But Rice's only two turnovers had set up both Colorado scores, and the Owls didn't punt until their first series of the second half.

Lain and White were both named the outstanding players of the game.

1957 ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1957 at Miami, Fla.

Colorado 27
Clemson 21

Big Seven runner-up Colorado stormed out of the chute and had Atlantic Coast champion Clemson down 20-0 at the half as 72,552 fans yawned and went for refreshments at the 23rd Orange Bowl Classic.

But a lot of those drinks were spilled in the second half as Clemson rallied to take a 21-20 lead in the final period before the resurgent Buffs buckled up and drove for the winning score to take their first bowl triumph in history by a 27-21 score.

Fumbles, eight of them, three lost to Clemson, were a nemesis Colorado managed to overcome in the school's first national television appearance in history. One at the goal line at the end of the first half perhaps prevented CU being able to put the game away, and one on its own 27 with three minutes remaining in the game gave the Tigers one last shot to pull out the win.

Dal Ward's Buffaloes got first half touchdowns from John Bayuk, Howard Cook and Boyd Dowler to take the seemingly safe 20-point halftime lead. But Frank Howard's Tigers roared back to go ahead by 21-20 with 11:12 left in the game on a one-yard run by fullback Bob Spooner.

But the Buffs sucked it up and drove 53 yards for the winning score after a Clemson onside kick attempt following the score had failed. Eddie Dove carried four times and Bayuk three in the drive, with Bayuk getting the TD from the one-yard line with 7:13 left to play. Ellwin Indorf's kick gave CU what proved to be the winning margin.

With less than three minutes to go and facing a 2nd-and-9 on the Buff 26, Clemson's Charlie Bussey was intercepted at the 17 by Bob Stransky, nailing down the decision for the Buffs.

1962 ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1962 at Miami, Fla.

Louisiana State 25
Colorado 7

Jittery Big Eight champion Colorado was out-classed by Louisiana State's smooth football hordes, and the Buffaloes lost a 25-7 decision in the 28th Orange Bowl Classic before 62,391 onlookers.

Coach Paul Dietzel's Southeast Conference champions built up a 5-0 first quarter lead on field goal and a safety scored when Gary Kinchen blocked a Charlie McBride punt out of the end zone. Colorado came back to grab a 7-5 lead on Buff defender Loren Schweninger's 59-yard pass interception return for a score early in the second quarter.

But the Tigers then methodically dismantled the Buffaloes, and though down by only four at halftime, one had the feeling that the struggling CU offense might not be able to get going in the second half. Colorado had only three plays, for as many yards, in the first quarter, and ran just 17 for 48 in the first half.

LSU took the lead for good in the second quarter, marching 82 yards for the score with Chuck Crawford going in from the one with 8:57 left in the first half to give the Tigers an 11-7 margin that held until the half. The Tigers scored twice quickly in the third quarter to put the game away, going 43 yards after a poor 18-yard punt and blocking another McBride punt for a touchdown just as the period ended.

Sonny Grandelius' Buffs managed only 129 yards in total offense against the LSU "Chinese Bandit" defense, while the Tigers earned 315 yards. CU had come into the game with a 9-1 mark, losing only to Utah and winning all seven Big Eight games to claim its first league crown.

1967 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Dec. 31, 1967 at Houston, Texas

Colorado 31
Miami, Fla. 21

Sophomore quarterback Bobby Anderson ignored a painful ankle injury and ignited Colorado's 31-21 victory over Miami, Fla. at Rice Stadium in the 9th annual Bluebonnet Bowl.

One of the more entertaining games of the '67 bowl season, there were five lead changes and neither team had a two-score lead until Wilmer Cooks put the game away with a 2-yard touchdown run with just 62 seconds to play.

Anderson, the 19-year-old Boulder-bred signal caller, led the Buffaloes on an 80-yard TD march in the third period to give the Herd a 17-14 lead. Then, after the Hurricanes recaptured the lead on the first play of the fourth quarter, Anderson sped 38 yards for a touchdown with 6:55 left in the game to put CU back ahead by 24-21. Anderson then took the Buffs 34 yards for the clinching score with 1:02 to play (Cooks' run) after Isaac Howard had picked off a Miami pass at the Hurricane 43-yard line and returned it nine yards..

The Buffs opened the scoring on a 7-yard run by Larry Plantz with just under five minutes left in the first quarter, as it took CU just two plays to capitalize on a Miami fumble. The Hurricanes answered that score on their next possession, and then took a 14-7 lead on a 77-yard interception return for a touchdown by Jimmy Dye.

Anderson was the complete player in winning game MVP honors, running for 108 yards on 17 carries, scoring two touchdowns, and completing 5-of-10 passes for 49 yards. Oddly, Anderson did not start the game, giving way to fleet Dan Kelly because of his bothersome ankle. Bobby entered the game in the second period after Miami went in front.

1969 LIBERTY BOWL

Dec. 13, 1969 at Memphis, Tenn.

Colorado 47
Alabama 33

All-American tailback Bobby Anderson and his herd of Bison stampeded into Memphis and outslugged Alabama, 47-33, before 50,042 fans and a nationwide television audience in the 11th annual Liberty Bowl.

The 80 combined points by the teams marked the most ever scored In a major bowl game, and the second most at the time in any NCAA postseason game, surpassed only by the 91 points scored in the 1968 Tangerine Bowl (a 49-42 Richmond win over Ohio U.).

Anderson, a bullish 6-0, 208-pounder, capped his All-America campaign by rushing for a Liberty Bowl record 254 yards and scoring three touchdowns. It gave him a total of 5,017 yards in total offense for his career and enabled him to become the first Big Eight player ever to hit the 5,000-yard mark for a career, including bowl games.

Fullback Ward Walsh scored twice on short runs, Dave Haney kicked a 30-yard field goal, Anderson scored from the two, and Steve Engel and Bob Masten collaborated on a 91-yard kickoff return as CU stormed to a 31-19 halftime lead. The Crimson Tide rallied to take a 33-31 lead with two third quarter touchdowns, but CU blitzed 'Bama for 16 unanswered points in the final stanza to post the win.

Defensively, the Buffaloes harassed two Tide quarterbacks all afternoon, posting eight sacks, several knockdowns and seven pass deflections. End Bill Brundige was in on five sacks for 41 yards in losses.

It was the only match up between college coaching legends, as Eddie Crowder's Buffaloes prevailed over Paul "Bear" Bryant's Crimson Tide. It was a classic, as 'Bama stormed back from 17- and 12-point deficits, but CU's resiliency won out.

A total of 16 new Liberty bowl records were set in the long and exciting afternoon in Memphis Memorial Stadium before the ABC-TV cameras.

1970 LIBERTY BOWL

Dec. 12, 1970 at Memphis, Tenn.

Tulane 17
Colorado 3

Hungry Tulane ruined Colorado's return to the Liberty Bowl and the Green Wave walked off with a stunning 17-3 upset of the Buffs as 44,640 fans shivered in the cold at the 12th annual event at Memphis Memorial Stadium.

Colorado, playing without injured quarterback Jim Bratten, and going with sophomore Paul Arendt, mounted little offense and fell to the emotional Tulane effort. CU had come into the game with just a 6-4 record, but had upset powers Penn State and Sugar Bowl-bound Air Force during the season. Tulane used the win to improve to 8-4 on the year and added CU to the list of impressive teams it had beaten, including Georgia, Illinois, North Carolina and Miami, Fla.

CU's only points came on a 32-yard second quarter field goal from Dave Haney as the Buffs managed only 175 yards in total offense after leading the Big Eight with a per-game average of almost 425 yards. Tulane's David Abercrombie returned a second half kickoff 66 yards and scored himself on runs of two and four yards to cap drives that broke a 3-3 halftime tie and sent Tulane to its eighth win of the year. Linebacker Rick Kingrea set up the second tally with a 44-yard interception return off Arendt in the final period.

The game was a total contrast to the '69 Liberty Bowl, where CU and Alabama combined for 80 points and 930 yards. This affair saw just 20 points make it to the scoreboard on just 416 yards of offense.

Bowl Games

1971 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Dec. 31, 1971 at Houston, Texas

Colorado 29
Houston 17

Colorado sophomore tailback Charlie Davis returned to his hometown and ripped host Houston for a whopping 202 yards on 37 carries as the Buffs whipped the Cougars, 29-17, in the 13th annual Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl Classic at the Astrodome.

Davis scored twice and was a one-man show in the first half. CU took a 23-14 lead into the dressing rooms. CU marched 70 yards in nine plays on the games first possession, and thanks to a 27-yard run by Davis, took a 7-0 lead less than four minutes into the game. After a pair of Robert Newhouse runs spotted Houston a 14-7 after the first quarter, but CU answered with a 16-point second quarter. A touchdown pass of five yards from Ken Johnson to Larry Brunson, a 32-yard field goal by J. B. Dean, and another TD run by Davis enabled the Buffs to take the nine-point halftime lead.

Houston, behind the running of Newhouse, roared back to narrow the margin to 23-17 with 2:16 left in the third quarter as Mike Terrell kicked a 29-yard field goal. Newhouse, who lost out to Davis for the game's MVP Award, had 168 yards on 35 carries and also scored twice.

Safety John Stearns was a Colorado hero in the fourth period, making the gutsiest fourth down play in school history. On a fourth-and-9 from the Buff 10, he surprised everyone, including the Buff coaching staff, by sprinting 12 yards for a crucial first down after Houston had turned the momentum around and narrowed the margin to just a touchdown on the Terrell field goal. Stearns then knocked down a sure TD pass on fourth down with the Cougars at the CU nine. The Buffs turned that one around and marched for the clinching tally with 3:48 left in the game.

CU finished the season with a 10-2 mark, its only setbacks coming at the hands of national champion Nebraska and to No. 2 Oklahoma. In the Associated Press poll, the Buffs rose to No. 3 in the final balloting with the victory over No. 15 Houston (9-3), marking the first and only time one conference had three schools finish 1-2-3.

1972 GATOR BOWL

Dec. 30, 1972 at Jacksonville, Fla.

Auburn 24
Colorado 3

Auburn, an 11-point underdog to Colorado, took command in the second period and went on to beat the Buffs, 24-3, in the 28th Gator Bowl Classic before 71,114 fans.

It was 17-0 in favor of the Tigers before CU got on the board with just 7:31 left in the game on a Freddie Lima field goal. Auburn shut off the fearsome Colorado rushing attack, limiting the Buffs to just 63 yards in 29 attempts and forced CU quarterback Ken Johnson to the air.

Auburn, sixth-ranked in the nation, took it to Colorado by capitalizing on two CU fumbles and two pass thefts. Johnson, who had directed No. 13 Colorado to an 8-3 regular season coming into the game, hit on 17 of 29 passes for 169 yards, but the Buff running game was shut down.

Garner Jett's 27-yard field goal and a fumble recovery at the Colorado 16-yard line a minute later led to the 10-0 halftime lead for Auburn. Then, in the second half, wingback Mike Fuller hit tight end Rob Spivey with a 22-yard TD pass late in the third quarter. Holder Dave Beck threw a 16-yard TD pass off a fake field goal to Dan Nugent with just 1:10 left in the game to ice the win.

The Tigers managed only 233 yards on the afternoon, including only 153 on 58 rushing attempts, or just 2.6 per attempt, as the CU defense had 11 tackles for losses totaling 36 yards. But largely due to the turnovers, Auburn's four scoring drives consumed a grand total of only 116 yards.

Auburn finished 10-1 and moved up to a number five ranking for the season.

1975 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Dec. 27, 1975 at Houston, Texas

Texas 38
Colorado 21

Colorado rolled up a commanding 21-7 halftime lead over Texas, then kicked it away as the Longhorns rallied to a 38-21 win in the 17th Astro-Bluebonnet Bowl in the Houston Astrodome before 52,748.

In the first half, Colorado built up sizeable advantages in first downs (16-5), total yards (225-89), total plays (48-20) and time of possession (20:50-9:10) in building the 21-7 edge. After overcoming Texas returning the opening kickoff to the CU 14, when Russell Erxleben's 25-yard field goal was low into the line, CU fullback Terry Kunz scored on a one-yard dive with 2:29 left in the first quarter for a 7-0 lead. Quarterback David Williams threw a four-yard TD pass to Dave Logan with 12:42 left in the second period, then added a 25-yard scoring aerial to huge end Don Hasselbeck with 0:24 left in the half to provide the two touchdown margin.

But Kunz opened the second half with a costly fumble at the Buff 34 and Texas halfback Jimmy Walker scored eight plays later to make it 21-13, though CU blocked the extra point. UT end Tim Campbell blocked a CU punt a minute later and roared 25 yards for the touchdown, with a two-point conversion pass from quarterback Marty Akins to fullback Earl Campbell tying the game at 21-21 with 10:56 left in the third quarter.

Erxleben booted an NCAA bowl record 55-yard field goal with 6:25 left in the third period to give the Longhorns a 24-21 lead. Fleet Johnny Jones scored from four yards out with 3:15 left in the third period that put the Horns a 31-21, and then added an insurance score on a 7-yard run with 5:05 left in the game.

Despite 59 points being put on the scoreboard, the game really wasn't an offensive showcase. The Buffs outgained Texas by 294-237, but CU struggled on offense in the second half, gaining only 69 yards.

1977 ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1977 at Miami, Fla.

Ohio State 27
Colorado 10

Colorado returned to the Orange Bowl as Big Eight tri-champions for the first time since 1961, but Ohio State's defense and an injury to CU middle guard Charlie Johnson in the first half killed CU's chances in a 27-10 Buckeye win before 65,537.

The Buffs got the Orange Bowl nod over Oklahoma and Oklahoma State by virtue of their wins over both schools as all finished with 5-2 league records. CU came into the game ranked No.12, while Ohio State, the Big 10 runner-up, was 8-2-1 and ranked No. 11.

Colorado opened with a bang, getting ahead 10-0 in the first quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Mark Zetterberg with 5:56 elapsed, then a touchdown pass of 11 yards from sophomore quarterback Jeff Knapple to wingback Emery Moorehead with 3:43 left. At that point, CU held a 114-to minus 7 edge in total offense and had run 19 plays to just 6 for OSU. But Johnson, who had a quarterback sack and a pass pressure in those six plays, went down with a broken ankle. Ohio State coach Woody Hayes substituted fleet Rod Gerald at quarterback for a harassed Tom Pacenta and the Buckeye offense came alive in the second quarter.

OSU tailback Jeff Logan rambled for a 36-yard touchdown up the middle as the first period came to an end, then the Buckeyes tied it on a 28-yard field goal by Tom Skladany with 9:29 left in the half.

Ohio State engineered a 99-yard drive, capped by fullback Pete Johnson's three-yard run, with 0:20 left in the half to take a 17-10 lead into intermission. That advantage stood up until Skladany added another 20-yard field goal with 2:30 left in the third quarter to make it 20-10 in favor of OSU.

The Buffs could not do anything offensively in the second half, and a pass interception at the Colorado 28 with 3:08 left led to the final Ohio State touchdown and the winning margin of 27-10.

1985 FREEDOM BOWL

Dec. 30, 1985 at Anaheim, Calif.

Washington 20
Colorado 17

Washington staved off a pair of late Colorado rallies and held on to defeat the Buffaloes, 20-17, in the second annual Freedom Bowl at Anaheim Stadium.

It was a close game throughout, as neither team ever held a two-score advantage. Washington took a 3-0 lead late in the first quarter on a 30-yard field goal by Jeff Jaeger. The Buffs came back to take what would be their only lead of the night early in the second quarter. Fullback Anthony Weatherspoon scored from a yard out and Larry Eckel added the point after to give CU a 7-3 edge with 5:59 remaining in the first half. The Huskies' David Toy scored on a three-yard run with only 30 seconds left in the first half to put Washington up 10-7 at intermission, capping a 14-play, 80 yard drive engineering by quarterback Chris Chandler.

Eckel tied the score at 10-10 with a 33-yard field goal with 8:41 left in the third quarter, but Washington countered three minutes later with a one-yard scoring run by Tony Covington for a 17-10 lead. Jaeger added an 18-yard field goal three seconds into the fourth quarter to make it 20-10.

All-American punter Barry Helton threw out of punt formation to Jon Embree for a dazzling 31-yard touchdown pass and Eckel added the extra point with 11:05 to go to pull CU to within three. The Buffs would get no closer, but had the ball at inside the Husky 10 in the final five minutes. Halfback Mike Marquez fumbled the ball at the two ending the drive, although television replays indicated the ground may have caused the fumble.

The game capped CU's turnaround season, as the Buffs went from 1-10 the previous year to 7-5 and captured the NCAA's most-improved team honor.

Marquez led the Buffs with 80 yards on 10 carries, while Chandler led the Huskies with 72 yards on seven tries. It was a defensive game, with each team committing just a single turnover, but Washington was penalized 13 times for 88 yards on the evening.

1986 BLUEBONNET BOWL

Dec. 31, 1986 at Houston, Texas

Baylor 21
Colorado 9

Baylor turned two Colorado turnovers into touchdowns and then thwarted two Buff scoring threats in the fourth quarter as the Bears defeated CU, 21-9, before 40,470 in attendance at Rice Stadium in the 28th Bluebonnet Bowl.

It was CU's fourth appearance in the Houston-based game, with its last two games here played indoors in the Astrodome (1971 and 1975). As in 1967, this one was played outdoors on natural grass.

Baylor drew first blood with 3:34 left in the first quarter on a one-yard plunge by Derrick McAdoo on a fourth-and-goal play. Colorado countered two drives later with a 36-yard field goal by Dave DeLine to slice the lead to 7-3 early in the second stanza. But the Buffs turned the ball over on their own eight and it took Baylor three plays to score to extend the lead to 14-3, which stood at intermission. Cody Carlson hooked up with Darnell Chase on a 2-yard pass play for the score.

CU turned the ball over on its second play from scrimmage in the second half and McAdoo scored again from a yard out to put Baylor up 21-3. The Buffs finally put six on the board late in the quarter on a 31-yard touchdown run by Mark Hatcher, but CU couldn't convert the two and score remained 21-9 in favor of the Bears.

The Buffs twice had the ball deep in Baylor territory in the fourth quarter, but the Bear defense held, as CU couldn't convert either time on fourth down. In a game dominated by defense, Baylor outgained Colorado 279-194. Each team had 12 first downs, and the Buff defense held the Bears to over 200 yards under its per-game average for the season.

The running game, CU's bread-and-butter the last two seasons, was held in check by a ferocious Bear defense. Baylor had 14 tackles for loss in holding Colorado to just 83 rushing yards on 47 attempts. CU's running defense wasn't too shabby either, as Baylor netted just 114 yards on 43 tries.

1988 FREEDOM BOWL

Dec. 29, 1988 at Anaheim, Calif.

Brigham Young 20
Colorado 17

Brigham Young's only lead of the game came when it counted the most, as Jason Chaffetz' 35-yard field goal with 2:33 remaining in the fourth quarter rallied the Cougars to a 20-17 win over Colorado in the fifth annual Freedom Bowl.

The Buffs turned a BYU turnover into seven points just two-and-one-half minutes into the game, as Eric Bieniemy scored from one yard out to cap a six-play, 49-yard drive. Pat Blottiaux's PAT kick put CU up 7-0, but the Cougars tied the score some seven minutes later on a 19-yard touchdown pass from Sean Covey to Mike Salido.

Bieniemy's second touchdown of the game, also from a yard out, enabled CU to forge ahead 14-7 with 1:04 left in the half, with the margin standing at halftime.

The Buffs couldn't convert on several scoring opportunities in the second half, and twice penetrated the BYU 20 and came away with just three points. In the meantime, Ty Detmer's 14-yard scoring strike to Chuck Cutler knotted the score at 14 with 4:46 left in the third quarter. Blottiaux made good on a 19-yard field goal early in the fourth to give CU its last lead (17-14), but Chaffetz countered with a 31-yarder before nailing the game winner in the final minutes.

Colorado outgained the Cougars, 337-320, on the evening, but its on mistakes and penalties (nine, the most in CU bowl history), added up to the fifth straight bowl loss by the Buffaloes. Detmer, a sophomore and future Heisman Trophy winner (1990), came off the bench to complete 11 of 17 passes for 129 yards and a touchdown.

Bieniemy rushed for 144 yards and two scores on 33 carries, the second highest rushing performance to date in CU bowl history, and he also led the team in receiving yards in the game with 30. Alfred Williams posted three sacks for 25 yards in losses for the Buffs on defense.

1990 ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1990 at Miami, Fla.

Notre Dame 21
Colorado 6

Fullback Anthony Johnson's second touchdown run of the game late in the fourth quarter put an end to Colorado's undefeated season and national championship hopes as Notre Dame defeated the Buffaloes, 21-6, before a record 81,191 in the 56th annual Orange Bowl Classic.

Colorado came into the game with an 11-0 record and its first-ever No. 1 national ranking. The Buffs appeared headed to the national championship in the first half, as CU dominated the line of scrimmage in gaining 186 yards, but couldn't convert on three golden scoring opportunities. Instead of leading 17-0 or 21-0 at halftime, the Buffs found themselves in a scoreless deadlock and that thanks to Gary Howe's block of a Notre Dame field goal attempt at the intermission gun.

The Irish took control of the game in the third quarter, using a two-yard scoring run by Johnson and a 35-yard touchdown run on a reverse by Raghib Ismail to take a 14-0 lead midway through the period. Colorado sliced the lead to 14-6 on a spectacular 39-yard run by Darian Hagan to close the quarter, but the PAT kick sailed wide by Ken Culbertson, leaving the Buffs eight points back.

The CU defense held Notre Dame on its next possession, and then the Buffs drove to the Irish 44 where its own stalled. With 10:27 remaining, there was still plenty of time remaining for the Buffs. But Johnson's second touchdown, a seven-yard effort, culminated a mammoth 17-play, 82-yard drive that ate up almost nine minutes on the clock. The Buffs got the ball back with 1:32 left in the game, and after Mike Pritchard returned the Irish kickoff 28 yards to the CU 41, could not get anything going prior to time running out and Hagan was intercepted on the game's final play.

The win enabled Notre Dame to end the year with a 12-1 record and a No. 2 ranking, while CU ended up No. 4 in the polls, as the 11-1 Buffs were inexplicably jumped by a 10-2 Florida State that finished No. 3. Miami, Fla., was selected the national champion.

1991 ORANGE BOWL

Jan. 1, 1991 at Miami, Fla.

Colorado 10
Notre Dame 9

In an Orange Bowl where there was no shortage of heroes for Colorado, the No. 1 Buffaloes toppled No. 5 Notre Dame, 10-9, enabling the school to claim its first-ever national championship in football. CU overcame two key injuries in rallying in the second half for the victory.

After a scoreless first quarter, the Buffaloes drew first blood on a 22-yard field goal by Jim Harper three minutes into the second quarter. Notre Dame came right back, marching 62 yards in nine plays, with Ricky Watters scoring from two yards out. The score remained at 6-3, however, as CU's Ronnie Bradford charged through the line and blocked Craig Hentrich's extra point try. Just prior to halftime, CU lost the services of quarterback Darian Hagan (knee injury) and outside linebacker Kanavis McGhee (shoulder). Both missed the remainder of the game.

Hentrich booted a 24-yard field goal early in the second half to extend the Irish lead to 9-3. Charles S. Johnson took over at quarterback for the Buffs, with Notre Dame stopping CU cold on its first possession of the second half. On the first play of the next Notre Dame drive, Chad Brown forced Watters to fumble, with Paul Rose, subbing for McGhee, making the recovery.

Johnson, his feet now wet, coolly directed the Buffaloes to the go-ahead touchdown. Eric Bieniemy's one-yard touchdown run and Jim Harper's extra point kick late in the third quarter rallied CU into the lead. The Buffalo defense then held Notre Dame in check, as the Irish held on to the ball for only less than four minutes the rest of the game, mustering only 35 yards of total offense after CU went on top.

Colorado's road to the national championship wasn't without a couple of late scares. Notre Dame's Raghib Ismail broke loose on a punt return with less than a minute remaining, appearing to run 91 yards for a score, but CU's Tim James was clipped on the play, nullifying the gain. And with 13 seconds left in the game, the Irish still had a chance, especially with Hentrich's leg. On its own 38, a completion in the 20-25 yard range would have set up a winning field goal attempt, but Deon Figures intercepted the Rick Mirer pass at the Buff 36 and ran out the clock with a 27-yard return.

Bieniemy rushed for a game-high 86 yards on 28 carries, with Johnson earning the MVP honor, completing five of six passes for 80 yards. Defensively, the Buffs limited the "Golden Domers" to just 264 yards, and Greg Thomas picked off a pair of Mirer passes in Colorado territory. The win, which gave CU an 11-1-1 record for the season, also snapped a seven-game CU bowl-losing streak. Notre Dame finished the year with a 9-3 mark, and finished No. 6 in the nation.

1991 BLOCKBUSTER BOWL

Dec. 28, 1991 at Miami, Fla.

Alabama 30
Colorado 25

Jay Barker threw three touchdown passes and David Palmer scored twice to lead No. 8 and SEC runner-up Alabama to a 30-25 victory over No. 15 and co-Big Eight champion Colorado in the second annual Blockbuster Bowl.

Palmer scored the game's first points on a 52-yard punt return six minutes into the first quarter. The Buffaloes tied the score at 7-7 late in the quarter on a one-yard run by Scott Phillips, which was set up a Ron Woolfork blocked punt. Ted Johnson tackled Martin Houston in the endzone for a safety early in the second quarter, and then the teams traded field goals to enable CU to take a 12-10 lead at halftime.

Barker hooked up with Siran Stacy for a 13-yard touchdown play in the third quarter, only to see the Buffs come back 18 seconds later on a 62-yard scoring strike from Darian Hagan to Michael Westbrook. Barker added a 12-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Lee later in the quarter to give the Crimson Tide a 23-19 lead after three quarters. Barker and Palmer connected on a five-yard TD pass with 8:10 left in the game to put Alabama ahead 30-19, but the Buffs cut the lead to five on a 13-yard pass from Hagan to Charles Johnson with 3:30 left.

Colorado got the ball back with 1:49 left and drove to the 'Bama 33-yard line before being stopped on a fourth-and-one play with 40 seconds left. Alabama outgained CU, 307-199, running more plays (81-60) and holding on to the ball for 38:10. The game marked the debut of CU's new one-back, pass-oriented offense, which had some success. The change took place in CU's bowl practices and was surprise for the game, but at times it appeared that Alabama had found out somehow in advance because of the Crimson Tide's uncanny success on defense.

Alabama finished the season with an 11-1 mark, along with a final No. 5 ranking, while Colorado followed its first national championship season in 1990 with an 8-3-1 record and a No. 20 final ranking.

1993 FIESTA BOWL

Jan. 1, 1993 at Tempe, Ariz.

Syracuse 26
Colorado 22

Kirby Dar Dar's 100-yard kickoff return at the end of the third quarter proved to be the winning points as the No. 6 Syracuse Orangemen defeated the No. 10 Colorado Buffaloes, 26-22, in the 22nd annual Fiesta Bowl.

A defensive battle in the first half saw Colorado go into intermission with a 7-6 lead, as the teams combined for just 226 total yards. A pair of John Biskup field goals saw the Orangemen take a 6-0 lead, but with 10 seconds left in the half, Kordell Stewart threw a 7-yard touchdown pass to Sean Embree on fourth down, with Mitch Berger's PAT kick giving CU the slim one-point lead at the half.

The third quarter proved to be both pivotal and wild, with 29 points scored in just over a six-minute span. David Walker's13-yard run with 6:22 left in the quarter put Syracuse back on top, 12-7, with a two-point conversion pass falling incomplete.

Berger nailed a 38-yard field goal on CU's next possession to cut the lead to 12-10, but the 'Cuse went back up 19-10 on a spectacular 28-yard run by quarterback Marvin Graves. Stewart led the Buffs on an 82-yard drive in just over a minute, completing the march with a 16-yard TD pass to Charles Johnson, but Berger missed the point after on the slick Arizona State Stadium surface and the score stood at 19-16. The stadium floor had problems due to too many games being played on it, between the home school, ASU, the NFL Phoenix Cardinals and high school playoffs.

Dar Dar performed his heroics on the next kickoff, rambling 100 yards as time expired in the quarter. Lamont Warren scored the day's final points on a six-yard run late in the game, with Berger again missing the PAT try. The Buffs got the ball back in the final minute, but could not muster a scoring drive.

The Buffaloes outgained the Orangemen, 370-265, including a 217-64 edge in the passing game. Syracuse neutralized the CU offensive attack by netting 178 yards on kickoff returns.

1993 ALOHA BOWL

Dec. 25, 1993 at Honolulu, Hawai'i

Colorado 41
Fresno State 30

Rashaan Salaam rushed for 135 yards and three touchdowns to lead the No. 17 Colorado Buffaloes to a convincing 41-30 victory over the No. 24 Fresno State Bulldogs in the 12th annual Aloha Bowl.

The Buffs zoomed to a 17-0 lead, scoring on their first three possessions of the game. Salaam and James Hill scored on short touchdown runs, sandwiched around a Mitch Berger field goal, as CU went up 17-0 with 9:18 left in the half. After trading field goals, Fresno State pulled as close as it would get at intermission on a fluke play. Berger's squib kickoff was first fumbled by the Bulldogs' Jamie Christian, then recovered by Malcolm Seabron and returned 68 yards for a touchdown. The play pulled FSU to within 20-10 at halftime.

Salaam sprinted into the endzone from 40 yards out early in the second half, putting the daylight back into the CU lead (27-10). Fresno never got closer than 10 the remainder of the game, as Colorado was seemingly always in control, but could never put the game fully out of reach, either. CU ran the ball at will, averaging 6.4 yards per rushing attempt, minus two quarterback sacks. Lamont Warren had 68 yards on just 10 carries, and quarterback Kordell Stewart 50 on only eight tries.

The Buffs held Fresno State to just three rushing yards on the day, but the Bulldogs did put an all-time best of 523 passing yards on the board against CU (though 333 came after CU took the 27-10 lead). Salaam was named Colorado's Most Valuable Player for the game, while Chris Hudson was the game's MVP on defense. Hudson had seven tackles, two forced fumbles, two recoveries, a quarterback sack and a pass deflection.

CU, the Big Eight runner-up, climbed to 8-3-1 with the win, while Fresno State, co-champions on the Western Athletic Conference, finished 8-4.

1995 FIESTA BOWL

Jan. 2, 1995 at Tempe, Ariz.

Colorado 41
Notre Dame 24

Kordell Stewart amassed 348 yards of total offense and he received plenty of help on both offense and defense as the Colorado Buffaloes easily defeated Notre Dame, 41-24, in the 24th annual Fiesta Bowl.

The game was Bill McCartney's "swan song" as CU head coach, with the win giving him a final record over 13 seasons of 93-55-5, the winningest in Colorado history.

Stewart, named the game's most valuable player, had 268 total yards in the first half alone, when the Buffs built a commanding 31-3 lead with 1:05 remaining. For the game, he rushed seven times for 143 yards and a touchdown and completed 11 of 20 passes for 205 yards and another score.

Heisman Trophy winner Rashaan Salaam rushed for 83 yards and three touchdowns, including back-to-back scores in the final five minutes of the first half that helped break the game open.

On defense, the Buffs switched from the 3-4 to the 4-3 for the game, and the result yielded relentless pressure on Irish freshman quarterback Ron Powlus. CU had seven sacks, including three by the defensive MVP in the game, Shannon Clavelle, along with 12 pressures. Butkus Award runner-up Ted Johnson led all players with 20 tackles, with two for losses and an interception.

The Buffs scored on five of their first six possessions, with Stewart the key fixture on each. He had a 29-yard run on CU's first touchdown drive, a 35-yard dash on the second, a 16-yard run and 46-yard pass to James Kidd on the third, and a 12-yard run to the 1-yard line on the fourth. And after Notre Dame had closed to within 31-17 late in the third quarter, Stewart sprinted 41 yards to set up a field goal, and threw a 37-yard pass to Kidd en route to CU's final score.

The Buffs amassed 472 yards on offense in just 23:43 of possession time, playing nearly the perfect game. CU did not commit a turnover and averaged just under eight yards per play in finishing the season with an 11-1 record and No. 3 national ranking. Notre Dame, unranked coming into the game, ended the year at 6-6.

Following the game, Salaam announced that he would forego his senior year and declared himself eligible for the NFL draft. McCartney handed the reins of the program over to new head coach Rick Neuheisel the following morning.

1996 COTTON BOWL

Jan. 1, 1996 at Dallas, Texas

Colorado 38
Oregon 6

John Hessler threw for two touchdowns and ran for another and Herchell Troutman rushed for 100 yards and a score as the No. 7 Colorado Buffaloes rallied from a sluggish start in easily defeating the No. 12 Oregon Ducks, 38-6, in the 60th annual Cotton Bowl.

The Buffs overcame two early turnovers and a long kickoff return, holding the Ducks to just two field goals. The defense clamped down all afternoon on the potent Oregon attack, especially when the Ducks worked into CU territory; Oregon had just the six points in nine penetrations across midfield.

Trailing 6-0, Hessler directed CU on a six-play, 80-yard drive in just 97 seconds, with Hessler running the ball in himself from a yard out on the first play of the second quarter. After the teams exchanged possessions, the Ducks drove to the CU 9, where a Tony Graziani pass was intercepted by freshman Marcus Washington, who then returned the ball 95 yards for the longest interception return for a touchdown in CU bowl history.

Washington's heroics enabled the Buffs to take a 13-6 lead into the lockerroom, as the weather continued to get worse. A light rainfall increased as the game went on, with winds gusting to 20 miles per hour, making the field conditions worsen.

Though the weather was more Oregon-like, it didn't appear to bother Colorado. The Buffaloes broke open the close game in the third quarter with three touchdowns, with a six-yard run by Troutman sandwiched in the middle of two Hessler touchdown passes to Matt Lepsis and Phil Savoy. Troutman ran over right tackle for a 55-yard gain, the longest run ever by a Buff in the postseason, to set up CU's first second-half score.

Troutman was named the game's most valuable player on offense, with Washington garnering the same honor on defense, making six tackles in addition to his interception return.

Colorado owned a 313-258 edge in total offense, but the day belonged to the defense, and Oregon averaged just 3.5 yards per play and was forced into five turnovers. The win enabled Rick Neuheisel's Buffs to finish 10-2 on the season and No. 4 in the nation (USA Today/ CNN poll; No. 5 in the Associated Press).

1996 HOLIDAY BOWL

Dec. 30, 1996 at San Diego, Calif.

Colorado 33
Washington 21

Koy Detmer and Rae Carruth completed their careers in style, rallying No. 8 Colorado from an early two touchdown deficit to defeat No. 13 Washington, 33-21, in the 19th annual Holiday Bowl.

Detmer, who was named the game's offensive most valuable player, hooked up with Carruth on a 76-yard touchdown pass with 2:25 left in the first quarter to get the Buffaloes on the scoreboard. Until that play, the Huskies used a pair of Corey Dillon touchdown runs to build a 14-0 lead, threatening CU's three-game bowl winning streak and a chance at a third straight 10-win season.

Colorado pulled even four minutes into the second quarter, when defensive MVP Nick Ziegler intercepted a Brock Huard pass and returned it 31 yards for the first touchdown of his collegiate career. Washington answered with a Jerome Pathon 86-yard kickoff return for a 21-14 lead, but those would be the last points CU would allow on the night. Darrin Chiaverini tied the score at 21 with a seven-yard TD pass from Detmer, and Jeremy Aldrich's 42-yard field goal gave CU its first lead at 24-21 with 1:50 left in the first half.

CU added nine second half points on a 36-yard Aldrich field goal and a four-yard touchdown pass from Detmer to Carruth. The Buff defense held the Huskies to just 129 yards and seven first downs in the second half, and Washington's only scoring chance resulted in a blocked field goal attempt by Mike Phillips.

Detmer and Carruth respectively set CU bowl records for passing yards (371) and receiving yards (162). The Buffs had a 414-341 edge in total offense in the game, but a 373-204 edge after UW took its 14-0 lead. It was the largest deficit in CU bowl game history in which the Buffs rallied to win, and the fifth largest comeback in NCAA bowl annals.

CU finished 10-2 for second straight season, and earned a final ranking of No. 8 in the nation.

1998 ALOHA BOWL

Dec. 25, 1998 at Honolulu, Hawai'i

Colorado 51
Oregon 43

Ben Kelly set the tone for the day by returning the opening kickoff for a touchdown, as the Colorado Buffaloes built a 30-point third quarter lead and then held off the No. 21 Oregon Ducks, 51-43, in the 17th annual Aloha Bowl.

Kelly raced 93 yards for a score to start a busy day at Aloha Stadium, as 164 points would be tallied in college football's first-ever bowl doubleheader (Air Force beat Washington, 45-25, in the Oahu Bowl later that afternoon).

Mike Moschetti set a CU bowl record by throwing four touchdown passes in the game, the first coming late in the first quarter after Jeremy Aldrich's 48-yard field goal had given CU a 10-0 lead. Javon Green caught the five-yard toss and the Buffs were up 17-0.

Moschetti, CU's most valuable player in the game, threw scoring passes of 58 yards to Marcus Stiggers and 72 yards to Darrin Chiaverini in the second quarter, as the Buffaloes built a 37-14 halftime edge. Aldrich added a pair of field goals in the quarter, and his three in the game also established a new CU postseason best.

Damen Wheeler gave CU its biggest lead of the day at 44-14 after he raced into the backfield and plucked off an Akili Smith pass and ran 52 yards for a touchdown; he actually swiped the ball while it was traveling backwards, so the play was classified an intercepted pitch. Oregon chipped away at the CU advantage and had cut it to 44-28 early in the fourth quarter, but a 57-yard drive ended by a 20-yard TD pass from Moschetti to Daniel Graham worked the lead back up to 51-28. The Ducks wouldn't give up, adding two more scores to pull to within the final score of 51-43, as the CU defense rose to the occasion the one time Oregon had the ball with a chance to tie the game. The Buff defense forced three incompletions and Hannibal Navies added a 13-yard sack to keep the Ducks at bay.

Oregon outgained CU, 535-397, but the Buffs averaged more yards per play (6.7-6.6), basically scoring at will, and forced the Ducks into six turnovers that led to 23 Colorado points. The win was Colorado's fifth straight in the bowls, giving the Buffs the nation's longest active streak. It would also be the final game for CU head coach Rick Neuheisel, who resigned two weeks later to take over as head coach at Washington.

Bowl Games

1999 INSIGHT.COM BOWL

Dec. 31, 1999 at Tucson, Ariz.

Colorado 62
Boston College 28

Colorado scored six first half touchdowns from its offense, defense as well as special teams in building an insurmountable 45-7 lead en route to a 62-28 thrashing of Boston College in the 11th annual Insight.com Bowl, CU's nation-best sixth bowl win in a row.

The Buffaloes took the opening kickoff and marched 65 yards in 13 plays, with Cortlen Johnson's 10-yard run capping the drive to give CU a 7-0 lead. Boston College drove to the CU 26 on its first possession, but a 43-yard field goal sailed wide to take some steam out of the Eagles. Quarterback Mike Moschetti then engineered a 12-play, 74-yard drive, and called his own number to score on a 2-yard run and CU led, 14-0, with just 1:47 left in the period.

Then a barrage of returns for touchdowns sealed BC's fate. Thirty seconds and three plays after the Moschetti score, Jashon Sykes intercepted a Tim Hasselbeck pass and returned it 29 yards for a 21-0 lead. A little over four minutes into the second quarter, Rashidi Barnes did the same, stealing a Brian St. Pierre pass and rambling 21 yards into the end zone to make it 28-0. The Buffalo defense stopped the Eagles cold on their next possession, but the elation of a Kevin McMyler 55-yard punt to the CU 12 was short-lived as Ben Kelly raced 88 yards with the ball for a touchdown, the longest in NCAA bowl history, and a 35-0 Colorado lead. After George White intercepted a Moschetti pass and ran it back for a 78-yard score, Johnson added his second touchdown on the day and Jeremy Aldrich the first of two field goals for the 45-7 lead at intermission.

There were a couple of more quirky scores in the second half, as BC recovered its own fumble in the end zone for a score and got its last touchdown on a blocked punt return, but the game was over at halftime.

Johnson ran for 201 yards on just 15 carries, and was named to Sports Illustrated's All-Bowl team. CU set numerous school records and the 62 points were the third most ever scored in any bowl. And by scoring in all four quarters, the Buffs extended another amazing streak, as CU ended the 20th century scoring in 15 consecutive bowl quarters and in 26 of its last 27.

The win also gave CU a final record of 7-5 under first-year coach Gary Barnett, and it was Barnett's first win as a head coach in a bowl in three games (he was 0-2 at Northwestern before coming to Colorado).

2002 FIESTA BOWL

Jan. 1, 2002 at Tempe, Ariz.

Oregon 38
Colorado 16

It was only the sixth postseason meeting ever between Nos. 2 and 3, but second-ranked Oregon proved to be too much for third-ranked Colorado as the Ducks defeated the Buffaloes, 38-16. The loss snapped CU's nation-best six game bowl winning streak.

The Buffs scored first—and last—but it was in-between when Oregon flashed the muscle of its powerful passing attack when is outscored CU 38-0 from late in the first quarter to early in the fourth.

Colorado took a 7-0 lead after Brandon Drumm's 1-yard plunge capped an 11-play, 65-yard drive at the 6:26 mark of the first quarter. But the complexion of the game changed over the course of remainder of the first half. UO's star quarterback, Heisman finalist Joey Harrington, threw three touchdown passes, including a 28-yard strike to Keenan Howry to tie the score late in the first. Two drives later, early in the second stanza, Harrington and Samie Parker hooked up on a 79-yard strike that put the Ducks up for good. He combined with Onterrio Smith for a 6-yard score with 2:29 left before the half that gave the Ducks a 21-7 lead.

Two bad breaks did in the Buffs in the third quarter. With Oregon getting ball first, CU needed a defensive stop, but Maurice Morris broke at least half a dozen tackles in rambling 49 yards for a touchdown and a 28-7 UO lead less than three minutes into the half. Colorado then came back and drove to the Duck 26, where Bobby Pesavento scrambled free and hit Derek McCoy for an apparent touchdown. But the SEC official, some 20 yards behind the play, ruled Pesavento had crossed the line of scrimmage, negating the play. Television replays showed Pesavento was not over, but the call stood and took what little wind was left in CU's sails at the time.

Oregon extended the lead to 38-7, with Harrington throwing a fourth scoring pass, with 9:38 left. Colorado did get back on the board with a 39-yard field goal from Jeremy Flores and ended the game's scoring with a Craig Ochs to Daniel Graham 4-yard touchdown pass in the final seconds.

Graham set a CU bowl record with 10 receptions, but Oregon allowed CU only 49 net rushing yards after a potent Buff ground game ran up 603 in their final two regular season games. Oregon finished the season with an 11-1 record but couldn't overtake Miami in the final polls; CU closed at 10-3, ending at No. 9 in both major polls.

Bowl Games

2002 ALAMO BOWL

Dec. 28, 2002 at San Antonio, Texas

Wisconsin 31
Colorado 28 (OT)

No. 14 Colorado didn't have much luck in the Lone Star state three weeks earlier in its 29-7 loss to Oklahoma in the Big12 Championship game in Houston, and the return to Texas just after Christmas proved just as disappointing as the Buffaloes fell in overtime to Wisconsin, 31-28, in the Alamo Bowl presented by MasterCard.

Mike Allen's 37-yard field goal in overtime, after CU failed to score to open the extra session, completed a wild rally for the Badgers. Wisconsin tied the game with 51 seconds left in regulation when quarterback Brooks Bollinger scored from a yard out, which concluded a frantic 10-play, 80-yard march in 94 seconds.

Colorado took a 7-0 lead four minutes into the contest when Donald Strickland ended an early UW threat when he picked off a Bollinger pass at the CU 9 and raced 91 yards for the game's first points. The Badgers tied the game two possessions later, capitalizing on an interception of their own with Anthony Davis scoring on a 4-yard run to top off a short 19-yard drive. CU grabbed the lead back on the final play of the quarter, going up 14-7 after quarterback Robert Hodge hooked up with D.J. Hackett on a 10-yard touchdown pass that finished off an 11-play, 83-yard drive.

But Wisconsin owned the second quarter, scoring two more touchdowns on the heels of Hodge's second and third interceptions. Bollinger hit Brandon Williams with a 10-yard TD pass and Darrin Charles with a 7-yard toss, both on third down plays as the Badgers scored their three first half scores on combined drives of just 93 yards.

San Antonio native Zac Colvin replaced Hodge for the final first half series and led the Buffs to two scores in the third quarter. As Wisconsin did in converting CU interceptions, the Buffs did the same in converting Badger fumbles into third down touchdowns. Chris Brown scored on a 4-yard run midway into the period after the Badgers fumbled a Mark Mariscal punt. Davis fumbled on the first play of Wisconsin's next drive, with Kory Mossoni recovering at the UW17. Colvin found Hackett in the end zone for an 11-yard touchdown play that put CU up for the final time, 28-21. CU managed to tie the game and take the lead on two drives that totaled all of 42 yards.

A stalemate then ensued until UW took over on its own 20 with just 2:25 remaining. The game-tying drive included two conversions on fourth downs, the first on a 4th-and-18 (a 27 yards pass from Bollinger to Williams) and the next on a 4th-and-10 (Bollinger to Charles for 28 yards).

CU ran out the clock and couldn't gain any yards on three plays in the overtime; Patrick Brougham's 45-yard field goal try sailed wide right, setting the stage for Wisconsin to grab the victory on Allen's kick.

The only other overtime game in the 2002-03 bowl season was the Tostitos Fiesta Bowl, where Ohio State topped Miami, Fla., in two overtimes to win the national championship.

2004 HOUSTON BOWL

Dec. 29, 2004 at Houston, Texas

Colorado 33
UTEP 28

HOUSTON — Joel Klatt passed for 333 yards and two touchdowns, both coming in the fourth quarter, and Tom Hubbard had two interceptions in leading Colorado to a 33-28 come-from-behind victory over the Texas-El Paso Miners in the second annual EV1.Net Houston Bowl.

The Buffaloes spotted UTEP a 14-3 first quarter lead, but held the Miners to just 191 yards while outscoring them 30-14 over the last three periods. Klatt and Hubbard were respectively named the game's offensive and defensive most valuable players, though there were many stars for the Buffaloes on this afternoon.

Mason Crosby made good on 4-of-6 field goal tries, tight end Joe Klopfenstein had a record day, punter John Torp neutralized UTEP's return game and linebackers Thaddaeus Washington and Akarika Dawn combined for 16 tackles with five for losses and two quarterback sacks.

Trailing 21-19 to open the fourth quarter, UTEP answered a Buff field goal on the previous possession with a 4-play, 80-yard drive capped by a 3-yard touchdown pass from Jordan Palmer to Johnnie Higgins. That was the end of the fireworks for UTEP and it lit a fuse for the Buffaloes.

Colorado came right back on the first play of its next possession. Klatt hit a streaking Klopfenstein across the middle, with the junior breaking two tackles and outrunning a safety for a 78-yard touchdown reception. It was the longest play by a tight end in Colorado history, some 21 yards longer than the previous best. Crosby's PAT kick brought CU back to within 28-26.

The Miners then worked the ball to midfield, and on a 2nd-and-13, Palmer was intercepted by Hubbard at the Buff 28 to end the threat with 11:10 on the clock. CU immediately countered with a six play drive that covered 72 yards that had a little bit of everything.

Klatt hit Ron Monteilh for a short seven-yard gain on first down, but the next two plays yielded a zero yard rush by Bobby Purify and then an incomplete pass. On 4th-and-3, Torp faked a punt and scrambled 22 yards around the left side to give the Buffs a first down at the UTEP 43. Lawrence Vickers then rushed for four yards, and from there, Klatt hit a wide open Evan Judge on a 39-yard touchdown reception to give Colorado its first advantage since the first quarter.

UTEP went three-and-out on its next two possessions, the first of which included a sack by Washington and the second a key pass deflection by Hubbard on third down to deny the Miners a long gain. On their last drive of the game, after Torp pinned them at their own 18, the Miners earned one first down and drove the ball out to their 40, where Palmer threw four straight incompletions to turn the ball back over to CU, which ran out the clock.

CU struck first on a 26-yard Crosby field goal, with the Miners taking an 11-point edge after two touchdown runs. The Buffs pulled to within 14-13 after a Hugh Charles 1-yard run and a 54-yard field goal from Crosby. The latter was a CU postseason record, toppling the old long of 49 yards set by Mitch Berger in the 1993 Aloha Bowl. Palmer threw a TD pass that covered 17 yards to Jayson Boyd to put UTEP back up, 21-13, at halftime, but two Crosby field goals, the only third quarter scoring, pulled CU back to within two after the third.

Purify led all runners in the game with 80 yards on 22 carries, while Charles added 51 on just seven tries. Klopfenstein caught five passes for 134 yards and the score.

Bowl Games

2005 CHAMPS SPORTS BOWL

Dec. 27, 2005 at Orlando, Fla.

Clemson 19
Colorado 10

ORLANDO — James Davis became the first player to rush for over hundred yards against Colorado for the season as the Clemson freshman ran for 150 yards and a touchdown in the No. 23 Tigers' 19-10 win over the Buffaloes in the 16th annual Champs Sports Bowl.

The game was a defensive battle, with the two schools combining for just 489 yards of total offense, with the Buffs netting just 124 against a stifling Clemson unit. Colorado had just three first downs and 38 yards of offense in the first three periods and went three plays and out in six of its first nine possessions before getting untracked in the fourth quarter.

Despite CU's struggles on offense, the game wasn't decided until 1:38 remained, when Davis scored from 6 yards out to answer the Buffs lone touchdown of the evening. Backup quarterback Brian White had replaced starter James Cox in the fourth quarter and piloted the Buffaloes on a 69-yard drive that cut the "other" CU's lead to 13-10. White rolled right on third and goal and found tight end Quinn Sypniewski for a 2-yard touchdown pass, temporarily getting the Buffaloes back in the game.

But a worn out Colorado defense couldn't muster enough energy to stop the Tigers on their next possession, who clinched the game on the Davis score after marching 61 yards in seven plays in knocking just over four minutes off the clock. James Garee blocked the extra point attempt, and the Buffs did scoop up the ball and try to return it for a defensive two points, but the Tigers were on top of it and thwarted CU on its last-ditch attempt to remain down by a single score.

Cox and White were playing because three-year starter Joel Klatt was ruled out of the game, still suffering from the effects of a concussion in the Big12 Championship game (he suffered the injury on a vicious illegal hit by UT linebacker Drew Kelson with the Longhorns up by nine scores).

The first half produced a two-to-one lead in field goals by the runner-ups for the Lou Groza Award, as Clemson's Jad Daen opened the scoring with a 26-yard field goal in the first quarter, which was matched by Mason Crosby with a 36-yard boot on the first play of the second stanza. Dean added an 18-yard make with less than six minutes left in the half and the 6-3 Clemson lead stood at halftime.

Tiger quarterback Charlie Whitehurst capped a 67-yard drive with a 5-yard scoring run to open the second half, with the key play on the drive a 40-yard run by Davis, a bowl record and the longest against CU in two years. That put Clemson up 13-3, a score that would hold until White supplanted Cox and drove CU into the end zone for its first touchdown in 14 quarters.

White completed 7-of-12 passes for 81 yards, with Sypniewski on leading all players in the game with 50 receiving yards, including CU's longest play of the game, a 28-yard catch from White on CU's scoring drive. CU's other individual highlight came from punter John Torp, as the Ray Guy Award runner-up averaged 49.7 yards on nine kicks, including a CU bowl record long of 68, four kicks of 60-plus yards and four inside-the-20.

The only other meeting between the schools came some 49 years earlier in the 1957 Orange Bowl, with the Buffs claiming that one by 27-21.

Colorado was coached by Mike Hankwitz, who was named interim head coach after Gary Barnett stepped down on December 8 after six seasons at the reins of the program.

2007 INDEPENDENCE BOWL

Dec. 30, 2007 at Shreveport, La.

Alabama 30
Colorado 24

SHREVEPORT, La. — It was a game of two halves, or rather a game of fifths. Alabama owned a commanding 27-0 lead after the first 24 minutes of play, and though Colorado dominated the last three-fifths of the game, the Buffaloes fell short in their comeback, succumbing 30-24 to the Crimson Tide in the 32nd Annual PetroSun Independence Bowl.

A pair of Leigh Tiffin field goals and three touchdown passes to three different receivers by John Parker Wilson built a 27-0 lead for Alabama with 12:20 to play in the second quarter. At that juncture, the Crimson Tide also owned staggering edges in total yards (235-27), first downs (12-1) and total plays (27-12). CU picked up one first down on its next possession but then had to punt, followed by 'Bama moving from its 20 to the CU 44 in five plays with six minutes left in the half.

Then the play that would swing momentum to CU for the first time all game occurred. Wilson had completed 13-of-15 passes to that point, but Ryan Walters intercepted his next throw at the Buff 22 and returned it to the Alabama 43. From there, the offense finally exuded some confidence and marched into the end zone in eight plays, capped by a 4-yard pass from Cody Hawkins to Tyson DeVree.

The Buffs forced Alabama to punt and took over on their own 45 with 1:11 to play in the half. Hawkins and DeVree hooked up on three straight pass plays that picked up 29 yards and had CU in field goal range at the Tide 26-yard line. Hawkins spiked the ball to stop the clock and after a 1-yard pass to Patrick Williams, CU had a 3rd-and-9 at the 25 but the clock was running under 10 seconds. The Buffs took a chance for the end zone, and it paid off when Hawkins hit a streaking Dusty Sprague for the score with just four seconds on the clock. When the smoke cleared, Hawkins completed 8-of-9 passes on the two touchdown drives that brought the Buffs to within 27-14 at halftime.

Walters' interception and increased pressure on Wilson (one sack, four hurries) threw the Tide's offense off track. UA ran just six plays in the third quarter, but the Buffs couldn't capitalize. CU drove to the 'Bama 29 to open the half, but Kevin Eberhart missed a 48-yard field goal. He came back and made a 39-yard field goal that cut the lead to 10, though it was a bit of a letdown for the Buffs who had started the drive on their own 3 and had marched to the Tide 24 before a holding penalty helped stall the drive.

CU drove to the Alabama 30 on its next possession before a sack of Hawkins by Wallace Gilberry, the defensive player of the game, disrupted the drive. The teams wound up trading punts, and after CU regained possession, Hawkins was intercepted at the CU 22 by Darren Mustin. CU's defense stiffened and forced a third Tiffin field goal, but it put Alabama up 30-17 with 4:36 remaining.

The game was not over, however, as Colorado drove 69 yards in five plays in just 45 seconds. Hawkins hit DeVree for 27 yards to the 'Bama 42, and then Williams for 28 more to the 14. After two incomplete throws, he found DeVree in the back of the end zone for the touchdown, with Eberhart's PAT kick pulling CU to within one score, 30-24.

The Tide earned two first downs after CU kicked off deep, eventually punting into the end zone with one second left. From its own 20, the Buffs tried the 'ol "pass it and lateral it to whoever you can," picking up 25 yards in the process from Hawkins to Scotty McKnight, who pitched it to Daniel Sanders and he to Cody Crawford. But time ran out on CU.

Colorado rallied to outgain the Tide, 397-388, as Hawkins (322 yards, 3 TDs) and DeVree (9-94 receiving) were CU's offensive stars, while Walters (8 tackles, an interception, one sack and one PBU) and Butkus Award runner-up Jordon Dizon (14 tackles) led the Buff defense.

2016 ALAMO BOWL

Dec. 29, 2016 at San Antonio, Texas

Oklahoma State 38
Colorado 8

SAN ANTONIO – No. 10 Colorado couldn't get untracked in its first bowl appearance in nine seasons and fell to No. 12 Oklahoma State, 38-8, in the Valero Alamo Bowl at the Alamodome, a tough end for what was still the Buffaloes' finest season in more than a decade.

Injuries played a role in the Buffs struggling, as quarterback Sefo Liufau (ankle) and cornerbacks Chidobe Awuzie (turf toe) and Ahkello Witherspoon (shoulder) all were nursing maladies, but even if healthy, the Cowboys (10-3) were on a mission to end their season on a high note. Receiver James Washington made life miserable for the CU secondary (nine catches, 171 yards, one touchdown), while CU couldn't counter with much offensively until a late fourth quarter score.

The first quarter, though, was more or less a draw, with the teams' almost statistically even and just one score, a field goal by OSU that had it ahead, 3-0. CU had a chance to tie the score on its deepest penetration of the first half, but missed its field goal try, which turned out to be a harbinger of things to come.

The Cowboys scored a pair of touchdowns in each of the second and third quarters to methodically pull away, leading 31-0 before Colorado finally got on the board with 5:28 to play. Liufau, who was injured in the first half but returned to the game in the third quarter, drove the Buffs 77 yards in nine plays, with the senior quarterback scoring his final collegiate touchdown on a 6-yard keeper. He then hit tailback Phillip Lindsay with the two-point conversion.

Lindsay was the offensive star for CU, rushing 14 times for 63 yards with six receptions for 103 yards. OSU quarterback Mason Rudolph completed 22-of-32 passes for 314 yards and three touchdowns. OSU tailback Justice Hill carried 19 times for 100 yards and a TD, and Chris Carson ran 11 times for 61 yards and scored once. CU's leading tacklers were Rick Gamboa (11) and Kenneth Olugbode (10).

The Buffs ended the season with a 10-4 record, and a No. 15 ranking in the USA Today/Coaches poll (No. 17 by the Associated Press).

2020 ALAMO BOWL

Dec. 29, 2020 at San Antonio, Texas

Texas 55
Colorado 23

SAN ANTONIO — Colorado managed to keep up with No. 20 Texas for a half but eventually couldn't match the Longhorns' firepower in dropping a 55-23 decision against its former Big 12 mates in the Valero Alamo Bowl.

One of the bright spots of the night for the Buffs was the debut of quarterback Brendon Lewis, their possible quarterback of the future. The true freshman made his first appearance and engineered three touchdown drives for the Buffaloes in relief of starter Sam Noyer, who threw two interceptions in the first quarter.

But overall, the Buffs — who were missing a number of players because of injuries, suspensions and COVID-19 related issues — couldn't keep pace with the Longhorns after a close first half. The Buffs trailed 17-10 at halftime, but two quick Texas touchdowns in the third quarter put the Buffs in a hole they could not overcome.

Texas took a quick 14-0 lead, scoring touchdowns on two of its first three possessions, driving 74 and 89 yards for scores. But the Colorado defense found its footing and turned the Longhorns away on their next four possessions, giving the Buffs offense an opportunity to find its rhythm.

After six empty possessions, Colorado finally hit pay dirt behind the direction of Lewis. He directed a 10-play, 50-yard touchdown drive that saw CU convert two third downs. Jarek Broussard ran for 8 yards on third-and-3 and Lewis connected with Dimitri Stanley for a 26-yard gain — Lewis' first collegiate pass attempt — on third-and-8 to put Colorado at the Texas 2-yard line. CU then went nowhere on three straight runs but went for it on fourth down and Broussard delivered with a terrific second- and third-effort drive to the end zone. Evan Price's PAT pulled the Buffs to within 14-7 with 6:58 left in the second quarter.

After punts by both teams, Texas finally scored again, getting a 52-yard field goal after a third-down sack by Colorado's Mustafa Johnson stopped a Texas march. But Colorado quickly answered. Noyer returned to the huddle and directed a 53-yard drive that finished with a 40-yard Price field goal, sending CU into the locker room at the half trailing 17-10.

That, though, was as close as the Buffs could get. Texas needed just two plays to score to open the third quarter, and added another score on their next possession after CU missed a field goal. With the Buffs missing four of their best players on defense, it wound up being a matter of time before UT capitalized and put the game away with a 24-6 run over the first 15-plus minutes of the second half.

In a year where the COVID-19 pandemic wreaked havoc, the Buffs wrapped up their first season under Karl Dorrell at 4-2 while Texas finished 7-3.

CU FOOTBALL HISTORICAL SNAPSHOT

Colorado is in its second century of intercollegiate football, as the Buffaloes continue their 135th season of intercollegiate football in 2024. Through week 12 of the 2024 season, CU has played in 1,315 games with an all-time record of 732-547-36.

In FBS, only 23 programs began earlier than the Buffs did in 1890 and only 13 programs have played more seasons than the Buffs (134) with the only Big 12 program ahead being Cincinnati starting its 137th season. Colorado ranks tied for second in the Big 12 with Kansas.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

Starting from the top a family environment has been set for the Buffs have the most sets of brothers in the country with six in FBS Football. The brothers include Brandon and Colton Hood who are also joined by their cousin Trenton Hood, Kaleb and Cole Mathis whose dad Kevin Mathis is the cornerback coach, Chidozie and Chijoke Nwankwo, Shedeur and Shilo Sanders with their dad Deion "Coach Prime" Sanders, Destin and Keaton Wade, and Jaylen and LaJohntay Wester.

FATHER AND SON DUO

Not only are there multiple pairs of brothers on the team, Colorado is one of nine FBS teams with a father son pair as the head coach and player, Kennesaw State is the only other team with two sons playing with their dad. Shedeur Sanders is one of only two quarterbacks in the country with his dad as the head coach with Kennesaw State's Braden Bohannon.

NEW TOP DAWG

LaJohntay Wester transfered in from Florida Atlantic (FAU) where he consistently gave defenses problems on offense as well as a returner specifically a punt returner. Offensively he is 2nd in career receptions with 322 as well as the highest returning from last season where he caught 108 passes. Once he got the ball he made things happen currently sitting at fifth with 3,583 receiving yards, fifth for yards after catch with 1,825, and tied for sixth in touchdowns with 31. His newest teammate from Vanderbilt Will Sheppard is also tied for 15th among active players with 27 career receiving touchdowns. Among all the stats that Wester finds himself at the top of to start the 2024 season, he is currently first with 49 straight games with a reception dating back to his freshman season.

BACK TO THE PORTAL

Once again Colorado attacked the portal with the second most scholarship newcomers with 50 behind only North Texas who had 54. The Buffs will also see the second fewest overall returning players as well as scholarship players with 51 and 31 respectively behind North Texas in both regards. This season there will be zero players in their final year of eligibility who started there college career as a Buff.

2024 Colorado Football Anniversaries

1904 (Oct. 8) Considered one of the biggest wins in the 15-year history of the program, Colorado beats Nebraska in Boulder, 6-0. The game ball remains on display at CU's Heritage Center on campus (third floor of Old Main).

1909 Colorado finished 6-0 the first of three in a row to do so while establishing the school's all-time winning streak of 21 games between 1908 and 1912.

1924 (Oct. 11) The 100th anniversary of the first game at Colorado Stadium (now Folsom Field), a 39-0 win over Regis. Colorado says goodbye to Gamble Field the previous Saturday with a 21-0 romp over Western State on its way to an 8-1-1 record, which included its first overseas games—two in Hawai'i.

1939 The Buffaloes open 0-3, but would go on and post their best finish after such a start, rallying to win five in a row to finish 5-3 and win their first Mountain States Conference title.

1949 (Oct. 29) The 75th anniversary of perhaps the wackiest game in CU history when it comes to the weather. In a 14-7 homecoming win over Utah, the temperature was 61 degrees at its 2 p.m. kickoff with clear skies. It was overcast by halftime, and by the end of the game, the field was covered in six inches of snow.

1969 The Buffs cap an 8-3 season with an emotional 47-33 win over Alabama in the Liberty Bowl, where CU had to put up with racial slurs from some Alabama fans because Colorado had African-American players, including tri-captain Bill Collins, while the Crimson Tide were not integrated at the time.

1974 (Oct. 5) The last meeting for 45 years between Front Range rivals Colorado and Air Force, won by the Buffs, 28-27 at the USAFA. CU leads the all-time series 12-6.

1979 (Sept. 8) The 45th anniversary of the Colorado-Oregon game being the first college football game televised on ESPN (tape delay). It was also the first game of the short tenure as Colorado head coach by Chuck Fairbanks.

1984 (Sept. 15) The 40th anniversary marking the severe brain injury to CU tight end Ed Reinhardt, who was in a coma for a month after being hurt in the final two minutes of CU's 27-20 loss at Oregon. Reinhardt had caught 10 passes in the season opener the previous week against Michigan State and was the nation's leading receiver.

1989 Following Colorado's first 11-0 regular season in school history and No. 1 national ranking, the Buffaloes play for the national championship in the Orange Bowl against No. 4 Notre Dame, but come up short, 21-6. The Buffs dedicated the season to fallen quarterback Sal Aunese, who died on Sept. 23 after a six month battle with stomach cancer.

1994 The 30th anniversary of "The Catch," (CU's 27-26 win at Michigan); of Rashaan Salaam winning the first Heisman Trophy by a Buff (Dec. 10); of Chris Hudson winning the Thorpe Award (Dec. 8); of Salaam going over 2,000 yards for the season against Iowa State (Nov. 19); of Kordell Stewart becoming the Big 8's all-time total offense leader (also Nov. 19); of Bill McCartney retiring as CU's head coach (also Nov. 19); and of CU's 11-1 season which saw the Buffs finish as the No. 3 team in the country.

2004 (Oct. 16) Mason Crosby kicked CU's school record 60-yard field goal in a 19-14 win over Iowa State.

TV Ratings

BUFFS BACK IN PRIMETIME

The 2024 season began like much of the 2023 season, with the entire country on the edge of their seat watching the Colorado Buffaloes. The marquee match-up on ESPN to kickoff week one of the 2024 season did not disappoint. Against a FCS powerhouse in North Dakota State the game averaged 4.76 million viewers which was the most for a Thursday night opener on ESPN since 2017 and up 49% from a year ago in the same time slot. Not only that but the game peaked at 5.6 million viewers.

In Week 2's trip to Nebraska, the game on NBC drew 5.67 million viewers with a peak of 6.3 million, easily the most in the network's "Big Ten Saturday Night" window. Week three saw the Buffs out pace any game on CBS to start the season drawing 3.25 million viewers.

Through the regular season (12 games), Colorado is tied with Georgia in number of games over three million viewers with 10 of the 12 games played over that mark. Alabama and Ohio State rank are tied for third with eight games apiece. Texas, Michigan, and Florida are tied with seven games while Tennessee, Texas A&M, and LSU are tied with seven games.

Last season on the strength of a September to remember, the Colorado Buffaloes were one of the top teams in the country for total and average viewership. Through the first five weeks of the 2023 season, the Buffs had double the viewership of any team in the country, and led the country until the final week of the regular season, rivalry week. Even through conference championships and bowl season, the Buffs ended up No. 8 for total viewership and No. 6 for average viewership for the full season.

CU was part of five of the 25 most watched games of the 2023 season and of those games, only Alabama was in more, appearing in six of the 25, which included both the SEC title game and the Rose Bowl. Ten of the 25 games were in the post season, meaning CU had five of the 15 most watched games of the regular season, most in the nation. Further proof of the Buffs watch power, four of five CU opponents only appearance in one of the top 25 games were against the Buffs. Only Alabama, Texas and Ohio State had more than one opponent who's only appearance in one of those games was against them, each with two such opponents.

Those same five games also rank in the top 13 in CU history for most watched games, and if you take out the postseason games from that list, CU had five of six most watch games in regular season history, with all six games only behind the 1989 Nebraska game in a Nos. 2 vs. 3 match-up.

In terms of Pac-12 teams, CU ended up finishing behind national runner-up Washington for total viewership and average viewership with the Huskies competing in the Pac-12 title game and two playoff games. Thus far in the Big 12, the Buffs are the top-watched team in the league this season, well ahead of second place West Virginia, who ranks 32nd in viewership and 31st in average viewership.

BUFFS MAINSTAY ON NATIONAL TV IN PRIME ERA

In the Prime Era, CU has had 22 of its 24 selected games on network television or the flagship ESPN. In 2024, CU has appeared on all four major networks and the flagship ESPN for the first time in program history. CU has or will appear on network television 14 times with nine coming this season and five in 2023, the top two marks in school history. CU now has at least eight games on either network TV or the main ESPN in each of the last two seasons, the most in program history, and in 2023, CU had nine games selected above regional or conference telecast or on a streaming service, matching the previous program record with the 2008 season. With two games being announced, CU now has all 12 games selected above regional or conference telecast or on a streaming service a new program record. Colorado is the only school in the country to have all 12 regular season games on network television or the flagship ESPN.

GAME ATTENDANCE IN THE COACH PRIME ERA

The Colorado Buffaloes have played in front of a sold out stadium 20 times in 24 games in the Coach Prime Era. Last year, the Buffs played in front of a sellout each of the first 10 games of the season and in 11 overall. This season after not selling out the North Dakota State game, CU has played on front of a sellout the next nine games. The last two games included one at an NFL stadium and one the day after Thanksgiving that did not sell out.

Last season, the 11 games sold out was the second-most in the country for the regular season as the only non-sellout was at Washington State, a Friday night game over the school's Thanksgiving break near the end of the season. In the FBS in 2023, only Tennessee played in front of a sellout in all 12 games and with 11, the Buffs were tied with Florida, Georgia, Iowa and Notre Dame.

Colorado In The Rankings

New College Football Playoffs Format, Here Comes the Buffs

After four seasons without being ranked in the College Football Playoff's at any point, the Colorado Buffaloes found themselves ranked in the first three College Football Rankings coming in at No. 22 in week five after starting at No. 20 in the first ranking of the season. This is only the ninth, 10th, 11th,12th, and 13th time being ranked in the CFP with seven coming in the inaugural season of the four team playoff. The last two came in the 2020 shortened season due to COVID. This is the highest ranking since the final ranking in 2016.

Buffs Entered Rankings After Cincinnati

The 2024 Buffaloes pushed through after four weeks of receiving votes to earn the No. 23 ranking in the AP Poll after defeating Cincinnati 34-23 at home to improve to 6-2. Despite not playing when the week 11 ranking came out due to the second bye week, the Buffs improved to No. 21 in the AP Poll. After four weeks of receiving votes in the Coaches Poll, after the bye week became the first time joining the ranked at No. 24. This is the farthest into a full season since the final ranking of 2016. In the final regular season ranking they came in at No. 20 in the AP and No. 22 in the Coaches Poll.

Buffs In The NFL

NFL Buffs
In 2024, the Buffs have 13 players in the NFL, on an active or practice squad roster. Xavier Weaver, Derrick McLendon and Brenden Rice brings the total to 285 players that have made an NFL roster in CU history and those players have played a combined 1,358 seasons. CU has had 279 players drafted, including 25 in the first round, and 33 players in the first 32 picks (what today would be the first round). The Buffs had the most players in the NFL for the 1999 season with 39 and have twice had runs of 30-plus players in the league, first from 1977-81 and again from 1995-99, and have two other seasons in 2002 and '05 with 30-plus players on NFL rosters.

Super Bowl Buffs
A total of 67 former CU players have accumulated 97 Super Bowl appearances and 37 former players have a combined 55 Super Bowl rings. A total of 38 of the 58 Super Bowl games have featured at least one former Buff and the most Buffs in a single Super Bowl came in Super Bowl XXX when six Buffs played for the Pittsburgh Steelers. In 2020, 247Sports put together a list of the 54 Super Bowls to date and compiled a list of the all-time college leaders. At that time, CU ranked tied for 10th with 93 players and tied for 21st in Super Bowl scoring among college teams with 37 points. Cliff Branch (18), Mason Crosby (7), Cullen Bryant (6), Boyd Dowler (6) have scored in Super Bowl games.

NFL Stadiums
CU has played 43 games in 14 different NFL stadiums, and 26 games in six current NFL venues. CU is 15-11 in current NFL stadiums, including 12-5 in Denver, 1-0 in Foxborough, 1-0 in Seattle, 1-2 in Houston, 0-1 in Jacksonville, 0-2 in Kansas City and 0-1 in Santa Clara. CU has also played in former NFL stadiums in San Diego, Irving, Seattle, Houston, Miami, Tempe, Anaheim and Los Angeles. Four times the Buffs have played in two NFL stadiums in the same season, in 2002 (Denver, Houston), 2004 (Kansas City, Houston), 2008 (Denver, Jacksonville) and 2016 (Denver, Santa Clara).

NFL Scouts
Since 2000, a total of 1,456 NFL Scouts and front office personnel have attended Colorado games (home, road and neutral). The record for a single game is 31 scouts from 20 teams against UCLA in 2016, and in week 1 of 2024 the record was tied against North Dakota State with 31 scouts from 18 teams.

In 2024, CU has had 164 scouts and front office personnel from 31 teams (all but Green Bay) in attendance through the regular season. A game-by-game look in 2024, Week 1 vs. NDSU (31 scouts, 18 teams), Week 2 at Nebraska (7 scouts, 7 teams), Week 3 at CSU (16 scouts, 11 teams), Week 4 vs. Baylor (7 scouts, 4 teams), Week 5 at UCF (8 scouts, 8 teams), Week 6 vs. Kansas State (19 scouts, 14 teams), Week 7 at Arizona (17 scouts, 12 teams), Week 8 vs. Cincinnati (14 scouts, 9 teams), Week 9 at Texas Tech (2 scouts, 2 teams), Week 10 vs. Utah (22 scouts, 13 teams), Week 11 at Kansas (6 scouts, 5 teams), Week 12 vs. Oklahoma State (12 scouts, 4 teams).

In 2023, CU has had 112 scouts from 31 teams (all but Houston) in attendance at its games. Against USC, a total of 26 scouts from 18 teams were in attendance, one of the better attended games in CU history.

1994 Buffs/1995 NFL Draft
All 11 offensive starters from the 1994 CU team played in the NFL, with 10 being drafted, and another six from defense played in the NFL, making 17 of the 22 starters from that team playing in the NFL. The 1995 NFL Draft was a special one for CU, when 10 Buffs were drafted. CU is one of just 14 schools who have had 10 players drafted in a single draft in the seven-round era (1994-present).

CFL & UFL Buffs
Five current Buffs played in the UFL in 2024 after the USFL and XFL combined. Delrick Abrams (Memphis Showboats), Devin Ross (Michigan Panthers), Drew Lewis (and Carson Wells (St. Louis Battlehawks), Robert Barnes (San Antonio Brahams). Mustafa Johnson continues to play in the CFL for the Montreal Alouettes where he has racked up 72 tackles and 11 sacks the last three seasons and helped the Alouettes to a Gray Cup victory in 2023.

Buffs Lead Big 12 In Draft Picks
The Buffs lead the Big 12 in draft picks, with the official number 276 not counting three Buffs drafted in the last two years that started their career's at CU and made it to the NFL after transferring out, Christian Gonzalez and Mekhi Blackmon in 2023 and Brenden Rice in 2024. CU ranks 29th in the FBS, and has 21 more draft picks than Arizona State (255) with Baylor (249) close behind. TCU is fourth in the league with 215 and West Virginia rounds out the top five with 199.

Shedeur Sanders

Shedeur Sanders Makes Plays in All Situations

Shedeur Sanders' impact can't alone be explained by surface level stats, and when you look at clutch situations, a clearer understanding of his impact truly unfolds.

Starting off games Shedeur is one of the best in the first quarter. He is second in the country with a completion percentage of 80.2 %. In the first 15 minutes of games he is fourth with 10 touchdown passes. Wrapping all the stats into one he is ranked third in passer rating of those who have completed at least 70 passes with a 179.39 QB rating.

When a drive and a game need a big play to be made on third down, Sanders is at the top of the list of quarterbacks you want making the decisions. On third downs Shedeur is 61-of-98 (.622) for 964 yards good for third in the nation and 10 touchdowns tied for second among all QB's. It's not just that he is completing passes and moving the chains, on third down Sanders leads the nation in passes of at least 25 yards with 12. Making the right decisions leads him to the third highest QB rating among quarterbacks with at least 50 completions.

Getting more into the details of what makes him stand out among the rest of the nations quarterbacks, in third- and-1-3, he completes 10-of-12 (.833) passes for 146 yards and four touchdowns. His touchdowns (4) is second in the nation and his QB rating (295.53) is the top mark. When teams load the box expecting a run, Sanders finds ways to complete passes and convert them to touchdowns.

In all situations Sanders completes passes at an extremely high clip. He is leads the country on first down with at least 100 attempts, first against conference opponents, second in wins for those that are bowl eligible, second in road/neutral site games with at least 100 attempts, second when the game is tied, and third in the month of October. No matter what the game brings, he continues to stay calm and complete passes and move the chains.

He is also great when the Buffs are trailing by one score, hitting on 77-of-107 (.720) passes for 1,021 yards which leads the NCAA, with eight touchdowns making him fourth in the country and two interceptions with a QB rating of 173.04. He is third in throws of 25 yards or more with 11 and his QB rating is second of those with at least 50 completions.

In all situations Shedeur is one of the best, that holds true with his completion percentage of 73.4 leads the country, while his passing yards per game at 327.2 is good for third in the NCAA.

Shedeur Sanders

Shedeur One Of Six With 11,000 Yards Since 2021 In Division I

Shedeur Sanders is one of six quarterbacks in DI ball, counting both FBS and FCS, to throw for more than 11,000 yards in the past four seasons. His 132 touchdowns are the most in the nation and his PFF pass grade of 92.8 is one of five over 90 combined in the four seasons with at least 1,000 attempts and tops among the six with 11,000-plus yards. A look at the six:

Shedeur Sanders Had One Of Best Seasons In School History

QB Shedeur Sanders turned heads in the 2023 season, particularly through the first half of the season. He finished the season in the top 10 in four major statistical categories and in the top 25 in three others. At the time of his injury, he led the nation in receptions per game at 27.1 and finished second, leading the Pac-12. He finished fourth nationally in passing yards (314.4, second in the league), eighth in completion percentage (69.3, third), 12th in passing touchdowns (27, fourth), 18th in total offense (286.6, fifth) and 24th in pass efficiency (151.7, fifth). His 9.0 touchdown/interception ratio was fourth best in the nation behind Oregon's Bo Nix (15.0, 45-3), Penn State's Drew Allar (12.5, 25-2) and LSU's Jayden Daniels (10.0, 40-4).

In terms of CU records, his 3,230 yards, 0.7 interception percentage, 9.0 touchdown/interception ratio, 151.7 quarterback rating and 69.3 completion percentage are all new school marks, and his 298 completions and 430 pass attempts both rank second all-time.

Travis Hunter

Travis Hunter is playing college football in a way that has not been done by anybody in the modern era. FOX Sports put together a list of the Top 10 two-way performers in the last 30 seasons, and despite the names on this list none have the stats, the play counts, or the style to stand with Travis Hunter.

In chronological order, they are Champ Bailey, Georgia, Charles Woodson, Michigan, Chris Gable, Ohio State, Owen Marecic, Stanford, Shaq Thompason, Washington, Nick Vigil, Utah State, Myles Jacks, UCLA, Jabrill Peppers, Michigan and Adoree' Jackson, USC.

Hunter looks to finish putting his stamp on not just Colorado, but all of college football when he's done with it. The record books that already are filled with his name will need a new section, "Only Done By Travis Hunter."

Hunter won the 90th winner of the Heisman Trophy and was on 93.32% of ballots, which is the fourth highest in the history of the award. Hunter is the first player to win both the Biletnikoff Award, given to the top receiver regardless of position and the Bednarik, best defensive player in college football history.

Players With 50 Receptions, 3 INTs

Against Utah in 2024, Hunter caught his fourth interception of the season giving him his second season with at least 50 receptions and three interceptions. Last season he became the first player in at least the last 25 years in FBS to accomplish this. Champ Bailey was the only other player to have at least 40 receptions and three interceptions in a season.

Receiving Core

Colorado has seen plenty of receivers make plays this season. Every week there is someone new making plays.

- Colorado is the only FBS team to have five different players with a 100-yard receiving game this season. Travis Hunter, Jimmy Horn Jr., Drelon Miller, Omarion Miller, and LaJohntay Wester have all recorded 100-yard receiving games for the Buffs this year.
- Colorado is one of only two schools with two receivers in the top 15 in active career receiving touchdowns in Will Sheppard and LaJohntay Wester.
- Colorado is one of two schools in the country with two receivers in the top 30 in receiving touchdowns (at least eight) including Ohio State. Hunter has 11 and Wester has eight.
- So far this season Colorado has four players with at least 30 receptions for at least 400 yards in Jimmy Horn Jr., Travis Hunter, Will Sheppard, and LaJohntay Wester.
- Travis Hunter and LaJohntay Wester one of only two pairings in the country to both have at least 10 receiving touchdowns (Ohio State).
- Along with Jimmy Horn's 198 yard receiving game earlier in the season, those two are the first time CU has had two receivers with 175-plus yards in a game in the same season since 1992 (Michael Westbrook, Charles E. Johnson).

On the Ground

Isaiah Augustave

Isaiah Augustave a transfer from Arkansas, has began to take the bulk of the carries for the Buffs as he continues to get comfortable at Colorado.

- He currently leads the team in rushing yards with 373 on 82 carries. He has chipped in 11 receptions for 62 yards and three touchdowns.
- Augustave scored on a 37-yard rushing touch down in the third quarter against Utah, the lon gest scoring run for the Buffaloes since 2018. He finished the game with 7 rushes for 59 yards and 1 touchdown.
- He missed the regular season finale against Oklahoma State.
- Augustave has scored touchdowns in three straight games starting against Kansas State.
- Against Cincinnati he put up CU season high's with 22 carries for 91 yards and a touchdown. It's his second-highest rushing total of his ca reer, having a 100-yard game while at Arkansas.
- Also against Cincinnati Augustave forced 10 missed tackles on his runs, tied for sixth most in a game during Big 12 conference play.
- Against Arizona he had a season high in car ries and produced with 14 carries for 53 yards and a touchdown.

Dallan Hayden

Dallan Hayden transferred from Ohio State where he saw time during his true freshman season for the Buckeyes. He had three 100-yard games and scored five touchdowns. This included a start in the College Football Semifinals against Georgia in 2022. He looks to use his experience to boost the Buffs running game.

- Currently has 196 rushing yards and one touch down on 63 carries. Hayden has added 16 re ceptions for 94 yards through the air.
- His first touchdown as a Buff was a 14 yard dash against UCF. That marked the longest touchdown run by a Colorado running back since November 26, 2022 against Utah where Anthony Hankerson had a 23 yard rushing touchdown.
- Hayden leads the Buffs in career rushing yards after his time at Ohio State with 859 rushing yards.

Micah Welch

Micah Welch came to Colorado as a three-star prospect overlooked by the recruiting services and other schools, but has already made a name for himself as a true freshman.

- Currently has 38 carries for 161 yards and team leading on the team with four rush ing touchdowns.
- Has also added six receptions for 36 yards out of the backfield.
- Welch returned to the lineup against Kansas af ter missing five games.
- For rushing yards he is fifth in the Big 12 for true freshman running backs.
- In overall rushing touchdowns among freshman in the Big 12 he is first.
- Welch is one of only 10 true freshman to have at least two rushing touchdowns in the same game. He scored two in the overtime win against Baylor.

Charlie Offerdahl

Charlie Offerdahl is a Colorado kid who went to high school at Dakota Ridge in Littleton. He joined the Buffs as a walk-on in 2021.

- Charlie was given a scholarship prior to the 2024 spring game on April 27.
- Offerdahl scored his first career touchdown in the fourth quarter on a four-yard run against Utah.
- Offerdahl was the first running back in the game in week one against NDSU and officially started the game in week two against Nebraska.
- This season he has 26 carries for 119 yards.
- His 150 rushing yards in 2022 are the most in school history by a walk-on.
- His 55 rushing yards against Minnesota in 2022 are the third most ever by a walk-on in a single game.
- His 36 yard reception against Arizona in 2022 was the longest by a walk-on since junior TE Scott Fernandez had a 71-yard reception at Ari zona in 2012.

The Blindside

Jordan Seaton

Jordan Seaton came to Colorado as highly regarded as any player to come to Boulder.

- A consensus five-star prospect by the recruiting services.
- Unanimous top-ranked tackle in the Class of 2024.
- Seaton is the first true freshman to start at tackle in a season opener in CU history. In the Big 12, the last true freshman tackle to start a season opener was Texas' Kelvin Banks in 2022. Utah's Spencer Fano also did so last year.
- Named to the On3 Midseason Freshman All-American team.
- Named to the Shaun Alexander Freshman Player of the Year Hot 37 watch list.
- Has played the most snaps on the offensive line with 767 through 12 games.
- In 522 pass blocking snaps, Seaton has allowed a sack .37% of pass plays. He has only allowed one sack since week two.
- Named a semifinalist for the Shaun Alexander Freshman of the Year.
- 247 Sports Freshman of the Week (11/9)
- Named to the 247 Sports Freshman All-American Team
- Named to the On3 Freshman All-American Team

Freshman Phenom

Seaton has continued to prove the hype was justified. Here are a few stats to prove how far ahead he is, of all lineman with at least 350 pass blocking snaps:

- Ranks 35th Among all NCAA tackles with a PFF pass blocking grade of 82.3.
- His PFF grade also ranks 6th of all Big 12 tackles.
- 16th for all Big 12 lineman.
- 47th for all Power Five lineman.
- 11th for all Power Five tackles.
- He one of only two power five freshman lineman to play at least 350 snaps.
- He is one of just nine freshman lineman in all the NCAA to play at least 350 pass blocking snaps.
- Has gone five games playing 433 snaps without giving up a sack.

Front Seven

EDGE DEFENDERS

From the words of hall of famer and Senior Quality Control for Defense Warren Sapp, "We got five ends on a two-lane highway, so the depth of talent is pushing everyone."

SACK PARTY

Colorado leads the Big 12 and is tenth nationally with 37 sacks. It has been done by committee with only one player ranked in the top 50 nationally. A total of 14 different players have recorded a sack and nine have 2-plus sacks, the most at CU since 1983 and most nationally this season. Six different players have at least three sacks.

BJ GREEN II

After spending his first three seasons of college at Arizona State, Green transferred in and made an immediate impact on the defensive line.

- Ended the regular season with 30 tackles, 19 unassisted tackles, 12 tackles for loss, seven-and-a-half sacks, two forced fumbles, and one fumble recovery.
- Ranked second in the Big 12 and 29th in the country for sacks. After not recording a sack in the first four games of the season, he finished seven of the last eight games with at least half a sack.
- He ended the season ranked third in the Big 12 with 12 tackles for loss.
- He took home the Big 12 Defensive Newcomer of the Year, the first at CU since 2004.

NASCAR PACKAGE

BJ Green and Arden Walker have rotated on the edge providing high quality play and ranked highly from PFF as one of two teams with a pair in the top five.

(EDGE) Defensive Grades from PFF

Name (Pos)	School	DEF
BJ Green (EDGE)	Colorado	84.0
T.J. Jackson (EDGE)	West Virginia	81.1
Nyjalik Kelly (EDGE)	UCF	80.3
Arden Walker (EDGE)	Colorado	79.3
Tyler Batty (EDGE)	BYU	77.0

KEATON WADE

Keaton Wade missed the first part of the season due to injury. After working through rehab he made his season debut in heroic fashion on the road against Arizona on October 19.

- In only six games this season he has 20 tackles, 4 sacks and 7.5 tackles for loss.
- In his first game as a Buff, Wade finished with two sacks.
- Both his sacks against Arizona came on third down's ending the drives. Including his first sack as a Buff.

TAJE MCCOY

Taje McCoy redshirted last season, and began getting consistent playing time this season. Against UCF he had his coming out party.

- Has 20 tackles on the year including three sacks and three tackles for loss.
- His first two sacks came against UCF both on third down forcing UCF to punt.
- He recorded a sack for a second straight game against Kansas State.
- All three of his sacks have come on third down's, ending all three drives.

CHIDOZIE NWANKWO

Chidozie Nwankwo has 25 tackles on the season with one-and-a-half sacks and three tackles for loss. Despite being injured and missing two game he as led the interior D-Line in the games he has played.

- Reached 100 career tackles against UCF.

LAVONTA BENTLEY

Bentley has been a mainstay of the defense each of the last two seasons, making his mark on the team. He has the longest streak on the defense with 19 straight starts.

- Has 49 total tackles this season including 4 tackles for loss, one sack, and one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries, and three quarterback hurries.
- His forced fumble and fumble recovery came on the road against Colorado State on first and goal from the four yard line. He stripped the running back and recovered as a part of three straight turnovers forced by the defense in route to a 28-9 win.
- His 186 career tackles ranks fifth on the team.

Secondary

Cam'Ron Silmon-Craig

- Leads the team in total tackles with 88, 64 of which are solo tackles.
- Silmon-Craig was given the "L" on his jersey to signify him as a Leader on the team.
- Finished with three tackles for loss against Nebraska setting a career high.
- The 95-yard fumble return for touchdown against UCF is tied for the second-longest fumble return in CU history behind only Ben Kelly's 96-yard fumble return for a touchdown against Kansas on September 18, 1999. The last defensive touchdown for the Buffs was Shilo Sanders 80-yard pick-six against CSU last season.
- Second in the Big 12 and fourth in the NCAA for solo tackles and tenth in total tackles in the Big 12.
- He is first in the country in solo tackles for defensive backs.

Shilo Sanders

In his final season of college football as well as last season with his father, Shilo has battled injuries and expectations. Sanders broke his arm the first drive of week two against Nebraska and returned against Kansas State in week five.

- In only nine games he has 59 tackles with 42 unassisted, one pass breakup, two tackle for loss, and one sack.
- Sanders wrapped up the game in the fourth quarter with hi first sack of the season and a forced fumble recovered by Keaton Wade. That was his fifth forced fumble in his time at Colorado.
- With Texas Tech driving to tie the game Sanders picked up a fumble and returned it for a touchdown, his second at Colorado. His first a pick-six against Colorado State last season.
- Sanders was given the "D" to signify being a Dawg to his teammates.

CORNERBACKS

- Of the team's 12 interceptions, all but two of them have come from the cornerback position with Hodge, Hood, and McKinney accounting for two each. Hunter caught his fourth of the season making it two straight seasons with at least three.

DJ McKinney

After spending his first two collegiate seasons at Oklahoma State, McKinney joined Colorado and Coach Prime to learn from the best. Already sporting NFL size at 6-2 190, he will look to continue showing he is ready for the league.

- Third on the team and first among cornerbacks with 60 total tackles, 42 unassisted.
- McKinney leads the Big 12 in unassisted tackles by a cornerback and is third among all defensive backs.
- Registered his first career interception against Utah.
- Had his second career interception and first career pick-six against his former team Oklahoma State in the regular season finale.
- Already set a new career high for tackles after posting 38 last season at Oklahoma State.
- Tied for fourth in the Big 12 with nine pass breakups and sixth in passes defended.

Preston Hodge

Hodge after spending a season at a junior college found himself at Liberty where he saw action in 25 games across two seasons. He made a name for himself as a slot corner and has continued that at Colorado in his last season of college football.

- Seventh on the team with 33 tackles as well as adding seven pass breakups, two interceptions, and .5 tackles for loss.
- Hodge is tied for ninth in pass breakups in the Big 12 with seven. Including his two interceptions he has nine passes defended good for 12th in the Big 12.
- Hodge currently has 20 passes broken up and four interceptions in his career.

Colton Hood

Hood only spent one season at Auburn before transferring to Colorado. After primarily playing on special teams and in Nickel and Dime packages an injury to Travis Hunter allowed Hood to shine.

- Currently has 21 tackles, two interceptions, six pass breakups, and one tackle for loss.
- After being inserted into the lineup against Kansas State, Hood came down with his first interception of his career to help put the offense in good field position to score and take the lead.
- In his first career start against Arizona and future first round pick Tetairoa McMillan he not only helped limit him to only five receptions for 38 yards, but also came down with his second career interception.

Mark Vassett

Coffin Corner

In his first season at Colorado in 2023 Vassett was a master at placing punts right where he wanted them. His season stats are as followed:

- Punted 65 times for 2,845 yards, an average of 44.5 yards per punt with 22 inside the 20 and just three touchbacks.
- Had 16 punts of 50-plus yards, with a long of 60 and 14 of his punts were fair catches.
- His 22 punts inside the 20 led the Pac-12, and set a new CU record.
- Also set CU records for most punts inside the 10 with 12 and most punts inside the 5 with six.
- His 44.32 yards per punt average ranked 11th in CU history for a season and he currently ranks 8th for a career punt average at 44.0.
